Office Hours: Monday-Friday 9-5 PM

Pre-Requisites: Permission of Instructor

Course Description:
This course is designed for students to gain professional experience through Internship that is obtained from outside venues by the student or the Commercial Music program. Internship must reflect the student’s master’s degree concentration. Credits will vary depending upon the content of Internship. A written report from the student will be required at the end of the semester and a final report from the Internship host will be necessary before a grade is assigned.

Course Objective:
Practical experience in the workplace will help enhance and further student learning and personal development. Student will be able to implement academic skills and training acquired at FAU.

Required Text:
Depending on the Internship, textbooks may be recommended.

Additional Required Reading:
Recommendation will be made according to internship assignments.

Course Requirements:
Student is representing the Commercial Music program at Florida Atlantic University throughout the Internship assignment. Student has to adhere to venue performance requirements and expectations. All assignments are to be handled with professionalism.

1. Students must register for Graduate Internships after receiving approval by the instructor.

2. Written materials about the history of the company must be submitted before assignment begins.

3. The internship supervisor must submit a written request describing the duties of a potential intern, before assignment begins.

4. Before the assignment begins, the student is required to write a description of the duties that will be performed throughout the Internship and what they expect to accomplish.
5. The Internship should be related to the student’s potential career path.

6. Student must submit periodic reports to the instructor throughout the Internship. The report should detail their assignments to date. (Due: 4th week, 8th week, 12th week, when applicable.)

7. Submit a Time Log (attached) detailing the student’s hours. It must be signed by the internship supervisor and the student. Page 4.

8. At the conclusion of the Internship, the supervisor must submit a Company Evaluation (attached) for the intern.

9. Student must submit a Self-Evaluation (attached) along with all necessary paperwork as mentioned above, BEFORE the FINAL EXAM week.

Examples of Internship venues:

- Warner Brothers Music Publishing
- EMI music publishing
- The Recording Academy
- Setai Recording Studios
- Universal Music Group in New York
- The Harry Fox Agency [music publishers’ collection agency]
- Live Nation (concert promoters)
- Miami Music Festival
- Boca Raton Arts Festival
- Recording Engineering in multiple studios
- Various Record Labels [FJH Music]

Method of instruction:
The Internship host determines assignments, which must be approved by instructor. Examples of assignments include music licensing, copyright registration, audio engineering, concert promotion, royalty collection, public relations, music production as well as other related music industry activities.

Grading Methods:
S/U (determined by written reports submitted by the student and the supervisor.)

Grading Policy:
A grade of Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory is determined based upon the following components:

a. Internship supervisor’s written evaluation of the student’s performance as pertains to assignments, job performance, professional interaction, customer service, etc.

b. Company Evaluation Sheet (attached p.5) indicating a minimum evaluation of “Good” from the internship supervisor in all of the categories.

c. Student’s Self Evaluation (attached pp.6-7) describing their Internship assignment and overall experience.

d. Time Log (attached p.4) signed and dated by the supervisor—submitted by student before final exam week.

Course Schedule:
Hours at Internship should reflect number of credits registered for the Internship.

1 credit = 5 hours per week
2 credits = 10 hours per week
3 credits = 20 hours per week

Make up/ Late Work:
N/A
Plagiarism Detection:
SafeAssign will be used to check for plagiarism when applicable.

Students with Disabilities:
In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), students who require special accommodations due to a disability to properly execute coursework must register with the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) located in Boca Raton - SU 133 (561-297-3880). Any student registered with the office of Student Disabilities should present verification and need of assistance during the first week of classes. All possible and reasonable accommodation will be offered to that student through the course of the semester.

Incomplete Policy:
A grade of Incomplete will be assigned only in the case of extreme emergency or illness. Contact Professor Zager ASAP.

Course Communication:
mzager@fau.edu or 561-297-0600

HONOR CODE: Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty, including cheating and plagiarism, is considered a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the University mission to provide a high quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive of the University community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information:
