Required Text and Materials
Required Text:

Required software:
McGraw-Hill Connect Accounting – a web application for homework submission and additional tools that may be helpful in learning the course material. To access “Connect Accounting” go to the following website:

http://connect.mcgraw-hill.com

You may find the Connect Accounting useful as it provides immediate feedback and context-sensitive help on assignments and quizzes.

Note: the campus bookstore offers a package of the textbook bundled with access code to Connect Accounting. If you already have the textbook, or bought a used textbook without the access code to Connect Accounting, you may purchase the access code separately in the campus bookstore or on the Connect Accounting website.
Optional Textbooks

Course Description
Accounting for business combinations and consolidated entities will be stressed. Accounting for partnerships will also be covered.

Course Prerequisites and Credit Hours and Class Time Commitments
Intermediate Theory 2 (ACG 3141, 3 credits); or Financial Reporting and Accounting Concepts (ACG 6137, 3 credits)

According to Florida State Statute 6A-10.033, students must spend a minimum 2,250 minutes of in class time during a 3-credit course. Additionally, students enrolled in a 3-credit course are expected to spend a minimum of 4,500 minutes of out-of-class-time specifically working on course-related activities (i.e., reading assigned pieces, completing homework, preparing for exams and other assessments, reviewing class notes, etc.) and fulfilling any other class activities or duties as required.

Course Learning Objectives
1. To develop an understanding of the theoretical foundation of GAAP as they relate to business combinations (mergers and acquisitions and other types of business combinations such as Variable Interest Entities);
2. To become proficient in the application of GAAP and worksheet techniques involving consolidated financial statements;
3. To explore accounting for partnerships: formation, operation and liquidation.

Revised June 2013
Course Structure
Class time will be divided between lecture and discussing the class assignments. Given the complexity and amount of material to be covered, it is important for students to read the chapter in detail to get a basic understanding, prior to the period when a new topic is to be covered.

Class Assignments
The list of practice exercises and problems at the end of each chapter provides you with the opportunity to test your understanding of the topic and to practice applying GAAP to specific situations. Suggested solutions will be posted on the Blackboard website under “Assignments.” The assignments list of this syllabus provides practice opportunities for each topic in a chapter with additional practice for more difficult topics. This list is only a recommendation and you are responsible for assessing whether you understand the material and can apply it. This may require additional practice. It is strongly suggested that you attempt to do the exercises and problems before we discuss the material in class and then complete it soon after. Keeping up with the material is critical to your success in this course.

McGraw-Hill Connect Accounting
You can access the McGraw-Hill Connect Accounting site using the following general link:

http://connect.mcgraw-hill.com

To login into Connect Accounting, enter your email address and your password.

The first time you login into Connect Accounting you will need to register yourself on Connect Accounting with your particular class section by using the following link:

For students registered in section 001 (traditional class):
http://connect.mcgraw-hill.com/class/beniluz-fall-2013-traditional-v2

You should have received a registration code when you purchased your textbook bundled with Connect Accounting. Alternatively, the access code can be purchased separately at the campus bookstore or on the Connect Accounting website.

This website also provides useful tools and I encourage you to explore it.
Individual Required Homework Assignments
All students are required to submit via Connect Accounting solutions to homework assignments. Individual submissions are expected, even if you collaborate in developing the solutions with other students.

All homework assignments should be submitted electronically using Connect Accounting. Homework assignments cannot be accepted via email or in hard copy in class.

Homework assignments will be posted on Blackboard under “Assignments,” and on Connect Accounting. It is your responsibility to check the Blackboard website regularly for homework and other announcements.

Assignments and Homework Solutions
Some of the class assignments’ solutions will be presented in class. In addition, solutions to class assignments and homework assignments will be available on BLACKBOARD under “Assignments.”

How to Succeed in Advanced Accounting
There is a considerable complexity and amount of material covered in this course. To do well in this course it is essential that you: (1) attend class regularly, (2) complete assignments, and (3) do not fall behind. Cramming is not effective in this course. To understand accounting theories and applications, it is critical that you practice the details of assigned problems. It is essential that you stay current with all readings and assignments. If you are confused, seek help early!

Course Web Site - Blackboard
Course announcements, assignments, materials and other information will be posted on the course web site:

https://blackboard.fau.edu

Electronic Communication
Blackboard and FAU email will be used in this course for content delivery, homework, and other communications. Accordingly, it is the student’s responsibility to check the Blackboard course site and FAU email account for announcements, etc. Students are responsible for ensuring that the correct email address is used for blackboard.

There is no extra credit. Attendance and participation will be considered in assigning final grades. I reserve the right to adjust the grading formula.

The final exam will be comprehensive and cover the entire course.
Additional Course Policies

Missing Exams
Make-up exams will not be given for any reason. If you have a valid reason for missing an exam, (medical emergency, family emergency, university-scheduled events, religious observation, or class conflicts) the final exam will be re-weighted accordingly. If you do not have a valid reason for missing an exam, a zero grade may be assigned.

Late Assignments
All assignments should be submitted by the due date. Late assignments will not be accepted. Please plan accordingly.

Attendance Policy
You are expected to attend all classes. Professional conduct is expected.

Cell Phones
Cell phones should be turned off and put away during class. TEXTING DURING CLASS IS NOT PERMITTED.

Identification
Identification during exams may be required.

Anti-plagiarism Software
Written components of any assignment or project may be submitted to anti-plagiarism software to evaluate the originality of the work. Any students found to be submitting work that is not their own will be deemed in violation of the University’s honor code discussed above.

Points Awarded
It is the responsibility of the student to monitor the points awarded. During the semester, the student has up to two weeks following the posting of any points to contest the number of points, after which the points are considered final.

Religious Holidays
It is the responsibility of the student to promptly notify the professor of any conflicts due to religious observance so that accommodations can be arranged.

Pictures
Photographs of each student may be taken / used in connection with the course.

Selected University and College Policies

School of Accounting Policies
You are responsible for School of Accounting policies at These policies are considered to be an integral part of this syllabus.

Code of Academic Integrity Policy Statement
Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is considered a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the university mission to provide a high quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive of the university community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see University Regulation 4.001.

Disability Policy Statement
In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA), students who require reasonable accommodations due to a disability to properly execute coursework must register with the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD)—in Boca Raton, SU 133 (561-297-3880); in Davie, LA 203 (954-236-1222); or in Jupiter, SR 139 (561-799-8698)—and follow all OSD procedures.

Religious Accommodation Policy Statement
In accordance with rules of the Florida Board of Education and Florida law, students have the right to reasonable accommodations from the University in order to observe religious practices and beliefs with regard to admissions, registration, class attendance and the scheduling of examinations and work assignments. For further information, please see Academic Policies and Regulations.

University Approved Absence Policy Statement
In accordance with rules of the Florida Atlantic University, students have the right to reasonable accommodations to participate in University approved activities, including athletic or scholastics teams, musical and theatrical performances and debate activities. It is the student’s responsibility to notify the course instructor at least one week prior to missing any course assignment.
College of Business Minimum Grade Policy Statement
The minimum grade for College of Business requirements is a “C”. This includes all courses that are a part of the pre-business foundation, business core, and major program. In addition, courses that are used to satisfy the university’s Writing Across the Curriculum and Gordon Rule math requirements also have a minimum grade requirement of a “C”. Course syllabi give individualized information about grading as it pertains to the individual classes.

Incomplete Grade Policy Statement
A student who is passing a course, but has not completed all work due to exceptional circumstances, may, with consent of the instructor, temporarily receive a grade of incomplete (“I”). The assignment of the “I” grade is at the discretion of the instructor, but is allowed only if the student is passing the course.

The specific time required to make up an incomplete grade is at the discretion of the instructor. However, the College of Business policy on the resolution of incomplete grades requires that all work required to satisfy an incomplete (“I”) grade must be completed within a period of time not exceeding one calendar year from the assignment of the incomplete grade. After one calendar year, the incomplete grade automatically becomes a failing (“F”) grade.

Withdrawals
Any student who decides to drop is responsible for completing the proper paper work required to withdraw from the course.

Grade Appeal Process
A student may request a review of the final course grade when s/he believes that one of the following conditions apply:
- There was a computational or recording error in the grading.
- Non-academic criteria were applied in the grading process.
- There was a gross violation of the instructor’s own grading system.

The procedures for a grade appeal may be found in Chapter 4 of the University Regulations.

Disruptive Behavior Policy Statement
Disruptive behavior is defined in the FAU Student Code of Conduct as “...activities which interfere with the educational mission within classroom.” Students who behave in the classroom such that the educational experiences of other students and/or the instructor’s course objectives are disrupted are subject to disciplinary action. Such behavior impedes students’ ability to learn or an instructor’s ability to teach. Disruptive behavior may include, but is not limited to: non-approved use of electronic devices (including cellular telephones); cursing or shouting at others in such a way as to be disruptive; or, other violations of an instructor’s expectations for classroom conduct.

Faculty Rights and Responsibilities

Florida Atlantic University respects the right of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires classroom conditions which do not impede their exercise. To ensure these rights, faculty members have the prerogative:

- To establish and implement academic standards
- To establish and enforce reasonable behavior standards in each class
- To refer disciplinary action to those students whose behavior may be judged to be disruptive under the Student Code of Conduct.
