

Department of History Graduate Awards 2010-2011

Due Thursday, February 24, 2011
at the Department of History Office, AH 107
(or to a member of the History faculty at Davie/Jupiter)

Name & Address:

Home phone, cell, and email address: _____/_____/_____

GPA as a History graduate student at FAU: _____

Award in Honor of Frances Edelman

This award of $500 is made to a Graduate Teaching Assistant, based on academic achievement and student evaluations.

Please list your SPOT information for each semester you have served as a teaching assistant:

Term _____	Score for item #21 _____
Term _____	Score for item #21 _____
Term _____	Score for item #21 _____

Students applying for this award need to attach a teaching statement. You can write about problems you've encountered as a classroom instructor, and how you coped with them. In addition, you could explore themes on which you lectured, and why you selected them. Please limit to 250 words.

John O'Sullivan Travel Grant

Established in 2000 in memory of Dr. John O'Sullivan, this scholarship of $500 supports thesis travel for history graduate students in good academic standing. Recipients must be admitted to candidacy and traveling to do research in the semester following application.

Students wishing to apply must attach a one-page letter of application, outlining thesis topic, location of archives, and approximate costs of travel. Students will also need to request a letter of support from their thesis director.

Awards are processed through the financial aid office. Students do not receive checks. Sundry fines on the student's account will be deducted from the award prior to disbursement. Award amounts listed are averages. Actual awards may vary year-to-year depending on budget feasibility. Awardees are required to attend the award ceremony (April 15, 2011, 2-4 PM) and to write a brief letter of thanks to donors. For further information see "contact us" on the FAU History Department website: <http://www.fau.edu/history>.