Student Information Release

In accordance with the provisions of the Buckley Amendment and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the Department of Housing and Residential Life cannot release certain information contained in the Student's educational records, including financial information without the student's consent. The FAU Consent to Release Confidential Student Information form can be found at <http://www.fau.edu/registrar/pdf/Docs/UniversityFERPAWaiverForm.pdf>. Students who would like for parents, guardians, or others to be able to have access to their housing information must complete the form, making sure to check the box for Housing and Residential Life, and submit it to the Office of the Registrar. Information will not be released to a third party without a completed form.

Statement of Criminal Record

This item MUST be completed in order for the Student to be assigned. Residents are under a continuing duty to report convictions of crime, even if adjudication or sentence has been withheld. This duty includes specifying the nature of the crime, when and where it occurred and the case number. This information must be provided with this Contract, or in the event of a conviction occurring after the submission of the Contract, it should be provided in writing to the Director of Housing and Residential Life within ten (10) days of the conviction. By signing this Contract, the Student agrees to this term, as well as to the continuing duty to comply with this provision.

Have you ever been convicted of a crime, either a misdemeanor or felony, anywhere, either within or outside of the United States? (A plea of no contest, or its equivalent, or a withholding of adjudication, or its equivalent, is still a conviction for purposes of this Contract.)

No Yes

If the answer is yes, please provide the following information on a separate page:

- Case number
- Nature of the crime
- When and where the crime occurred

Florida Pre-Paid "Dormitory Plan" Information

Students who have the Florida Pre-Paid "Dormitory Plan" will be given a priority assignment, provided the completed Housing Contract is returned by May 1. Traditionally, the "Dormitory Plan" portion of the Florida Pre-Paid College Program covers only the rate for the least expensive double room on the Boca Raton campus, although Florida Pre-Paid is responsible for setting the award amount on a year-by-year basis and may choose to provide more or less coverage. Jupiter Housing is considered an "upgrade" and as such, you are responsible for paying any additional costs. You must indicate on the first page of this contract that you are a Florida Pre-Paid "Dormitory Plan" participant in order to receive a priority assignment. The "Dormitory Plan" will not cover the $200 security deposit.

E-mail as Official Method of Communication

FAU's primary source for correspondence with students is through the student's FAU email. Messages sent by the University may include time-sensitive information regarding student accounts, announcements, and class information. Students are responsible for checking their FAU email on a regular basis and should clean out their email boxes diligently to ensure all mail is delivered. FAU email should never be auto-forwarded to another email account. For more information regarding MyFAU and email, visit www.fau.edu/irm/myfau. For issues with logging into MyFAU, contact the IRM Help desk at 561-297-3999. Students should add jupiterhousing@fau.edu to their address books in order to avoid having important information filtered to "junk" mail boxes.

The Department of Housing and Residential Life utilizes email to communicate information including, but not limited to, assignments, billing issues, and waiting list status, so students are responsible for checking their email regularly.

Contract Terms and Conditions

- 1) RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT: All Honors College students are required to live in University housing. Exceptions are made for students who are 26 years of age or older on the date of their initial matriculation at the Honors College or for students who are married or have dependent children. Students who wish to be exempt must apply for exemption prior to the start of the Academic Year.
- 2) ELIGIBILITY FOR RESIDENCY: A person must be admitted as a full time, degree-seeking undergraduate student of the Harriet L. Wilkes Honors College to be eligible for University housing. The student must remain enrolled full-time throughout the term of this contract.
- 3) CONTRACT TERMS AND CONDITIONS: This contract is for a space in the University housing system, and covers the entire academic year (both Fall and Spring semesters), or any portion of the academic year remaining at the time this contract is signed. Residence in University residence halls requires participation in the University's residential dining program. The student will be assessed all fees for the contract term if the student enrolls but does not occupy the assigned space and has not cancelled this contract in writing pursuant to paragraph 17. The Summer term is not included in this contract.
- 4) OCCUPANCY PERIOD: This contract is for the entire academic year and covers the student's residency from the official opening of University housing through 24 hours after the student's last final exam of the FAU Spring semester or until noon on the last day of the Spring semester per the FAU Academic Calendar, whichever comes first. The official opening date for University housing can be found at www.fau.edu/housing. Students who will not be enrolled for the Spring semester must check out within 24 hours after the student's last final exam of the FAU Fall semester or by noon on the last day of the Fall semester per the FAU Academic Calendar, whichever comes first. University housing considers the student to be occupying the assigned accommodation when the student signs for room keys.

- 5) PAYMENT OF FEES: The student agrees to accept the assigned space in University Housing and pay housing fees on or before the published payment dates. Current fees can be found at www.fau.edu/housing. It is the responsibility of the student to routinely check his/her student account to determine outstanding balances. Students who receive financial aid awards are required to pay all housing costs not covered by their awards (after tuition and fees are paid), by the payment date set by the University. Financial aid may not be used to pay the required security deposit. Room rates are reduced only for the student who is assigned a space AFTER the conclusion of the FIRST WEEK of classes. Rates are also adjusted on a pro-rated basis if the room type changes. Failure to pay fees in a timely manner will be a material breach of this contract.
 - 6) CHECK OUT: The student must check-out within 24 hours after the student's last final exam of the Spring semester (Fall semester for those not enrolling for the Spring semester), or by noon on the last day of the semester per the FAU Academic Calendar, whichever comes first. This will not extend the student's contract term beyond that set out in paragraphs 3 and 4 above. The student is to vacate the space within 48 hours after withdrawal or dismissal from the University, or be held liable for room charges beyond his/her last date of attendance. Failure to move out within the prescribed period may result in a $150 per day charge, eviction, disciplinary action, or any or all of the foregoing. In case of eviction, the University will not be held responsible for student belongings and reserves the right to take possession of and discard such belongings, change all applicable locks, and charge the student for all necessary expenses. The student is expected to complete a proper check out prior to leaving the assigned space, as outlined in the Guidebook. When one occupant in a room/suite moves out while others remain, each is equally and jointly responsible for cleaning the room, bathroom, and suite. If any of those spaces are found to be in an unacceptable condition, cleaning services will be provided and all residents will be held liable for cleaning charges (see also paragraph 13). The student must also complete and sign the Room Condition Report form and return all keys to the Area Office. If the student is departing prior to the end of the academic year, a Contract Release Request form must be completed (see also paragraph 17). Failure to comply with this process may result in additional charges.
 - 7) ASSIGNMENT: Florida Atlantic University is an equal opportunity institution and, as such, assigns University housing space to qualified, enrolled, degree-seeking students without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, disability, or age, as provided by law and in accordance with the University's respect for personal dignity and the Department of Housing and Residential Life's Standards for Community Living. The basic accommodation is a room occupied by two persons of the same gender.
 - 8) ASSIGNMENT PROCEDURES AND PRIORITIES: First priority goes to current resident students who participate in the process known as the "Room Selection Process." In general, all other potential residents who are admitted to FAU as degree-seeking students will be assigned according to the date on which the completed and signed Housing Contract and $200 security deposit are received by the Department of Housing and Residential Life. The University will attempt to honor roommate requests when both students involved have indicated each other as roommates on the housing contract, and both have submitted materials at the same time, packaged together. This request must be received by April 1. The student agrees to accept the assigned space, regardless of preference, and may only cancel the contract according to those terms outlined in paragraph 17. As space becomes limited,
- preference will be given to incoming Freshmen/First-Time-in-College students and students who live further than 50 miles from the campus.
- 9) USE OF ASSIGNED SPACE: Occupancy of space is permitted only by the student to whom the space is assigned. Space may not be sublet to any other person(s). The student may not share assigned space with any other individual(s) not officially assigned by the University. The student may not refuse or prevent another assigned student from residing in a shared space (bedroom or suite). If the student refuses or prevents a new occupant from residing in a shared space, disciplinary action (including eviction), single room rental fees, or both, may be imposed on the student (see also paragraph 11). Use of space for specific visitation and guest policy information is governed by the Guidebook, which is received by the student at check in.
 - 10) CHANGES IN ASSIGNMENTS: Room changes may be made only after written approval is communicated from the Department of Housing and Residential Life. Failure to follow established room change procedures will constitute breach of this contract and may be grounds for cancellation, charges for occupying a second room, disciplinary action, or any of the foregoing. The University reserves the right to reassign a resident due to unforeseen events, including, but not limited to, enrollment fluctuations, facility problems, or staff changes.
 - 11) CONSOLIDATION AND VACANCY OPTION: Consolidation is defined as the moving together of residents by University Housing who are paying for a double occupancy room but for some reason, not necessarily because of their actions, are in a room by themselves. Double rooms are normally to be occupied by two students. If one of the occupants does not check in, or moves out, the remaining resident may be offered three choices, at the option of the University (see also Paragraph 9). For specific information see the Guidebook.
 - 12) BEHAVIOR AND CONDUCT: The Student is responsible for knowing and observing University policies, rules, regulations and procedures as set forth in the FAU Student Handbook and the Guidebook. The student is also responsible for observing all applicable federal, state, and local regulations and laws. The University reserves the right to make other rules and regulations as in its judgment may be necessary for the safety, care, and cleanliness of the premises and for the preservation of order. The Student agrees to abide by all additional rules and regulations that are adopted.
 - 13) CARE OF FACILITIES: The Student is responsible for care of rooms, furnishings, and equipment in University housing. The student is responsible for keeping the assigned unit clean and sanitary. The student agrees to cooperate with roommates in the common protection of University and personal property. The student also agrees to refrain from modifying the space in any way, except as expressly permitted in writing by the University Housing Office, and to promptly pay all assessed charges for damages, special cleaning, or maintenance resulting from misuse or modification of the facility. The student is jointly liable with roommates and/or suitemates for assessed charges in the room, suite, or common area of the residence hall, unless the responsible individual is identified.
 - 14) KEYS/CARD ACCESS: The student agrees not to duplicate any keys assigned, or to transfer their keys or identification card to another person, and will be subject to disciplinary action or termination of this contract if this occurs. If keys are not returned at check out, or if the keys are lost or stolen, the student agrees to pay for all lock changes and key replacements. The student is responsible for securing the assigned unit at all times and taking such precautions as is necessary for personal and property protection.
 - 15) EMERGENCY ACCESS: The University reserves the right to have authorized University staff or state designees enter the student's rooms/apartments/suites at reasonable times to inspect, maintain, and repair the premises and furnishings. Students are expected to promptly report damages and necessary repairs, in accordance with established and published procedures. In the event of an emergency, notice may be given immediately before entering.

When authorized personnel have a reasonable belief that a violation of a University or Housing regulation, local ordinance, state or federal statute is in progress, and/or for other emergency purposes, they may enter the student's rooms/apartments/suites/house without notice. Student's signature of this contract constitutes explicit consent for authorized personnel to enter the student's rooms, apartments, and/or suites without notice for such purposes.

16) LIMITATION OF UNIVERSITY LIABILITY: The University is not liable for damage to or loss of personal property, or failure or interruption of utilities. The University is insured under the State of Florida's self-insurance trust fund, which only provides limited liability coverage for damages or injuries caused by negligence by the University or its employees while working within the scope of their employment. The trust fund will not reimburse for losses created by unforeseen events, accidents, injuries, or theft that may occur. Students are encouraged to review family homeowner's insurance policies or to carry personal renter's insurance.

17) CONTRACT CANCELLATION: At a minimum, this Contract is in force as long as the Student is officially enrolled during the Academic Year as outlined in Paragraph 2, and as long as the Student remains in good standing. The Student may request a cancellation of the Contract by completing a written Request for Cancellation form according to the following guidelines:

- A. If the student is denied admission to the University, there shall be no cancellation fee and a full refund of any payments will be made; provided, however, where a student has occupied University housing, such student shall be responsible for a pro-rata portion of the contract amount pertaining to the period of occupancy.
- B. The student who does not check in to the assigned space by the first day of classes for the Fall semester (or the first day of classes for new Spring-only residents) and who is not enrolled will be assessed a $250 cancellation fee. The student's assignment will be forfeited and the student will need to submit a new Housing Contract and deposit for future terms.
- C. The student who wishes to cancel the Contract prior to the start of the Contract year may do so under the following guidelines, and with the indicated cancellation fees:

Cancellations of Full Academic Year Contract

D. The student who does not cancel by the start of the Contract year and who is enrolled at FAU will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Contract, including but not limited to the payment obligations under Paragraph 17.I. Freshmen are subject to the Freshman Residency Requirement (Paragraph 1). Non-freshmen are subject to the contract buy-out option (Paragraph 17.I).

E. The Fall resident who will be away from campus for the Spring semester for University-sponsored programs, including student teaching, interning or co-oping further than 50 miles away from campus may request a cancellation of the Contract, with no cancellation fee, prior to November 1. After that date, a $250 cancellation fee will be applied. Documentation is required. Residents who wish to return to University Housing afterwards are not guaranteed a space.

It is the responsibility of the Student to inform the Department of Housing and Residential Life of his/her academic status and subsequent need for a Contract cancellation. If Student notification and removal of all personal belongings occurs prior to January, no charges will be applied. After January 1, a $250 cancellation fee plus a prorated daily housing charge will be assessed until the official date of checkout.

H. The Student who withdraws from classes during either the Fall or Spring terms is required to leave University Housing within 48 hours of the withdrawal. The Student will be assessed a $250 cancellation fee plus a prorated daily housing charge.

Contract Buy-out requests may be made by a student after August 21 (for Fall/Spring) or January 7 (for Spring only) but before March 1st. The student is assessed a pro-rated housing charge plus 50% of the remaining Contract balance. The resident is not considered officially checked out of University housing until the resident has received written approval, all keys are returned, and a copy of the completed Room Condition Report is signed by the resident and a member of the University housing staff.

18) CONTRACT MODIFICATION OR TERMINATION: This Contract may be modified or terminated for cause as determined by the Director of Housing and Residential Life, or an authorized designee of the Director. If the Contract is terminated for cause, the Student will be required to pay the remainder of the Contract balance (see also Paragraph 6). In addition, the Department of Housing and Residential Life reserves the right to terminate or modify the terms of this Contract when the Director of Housing and Residential Life or an authorized designee learns that the Student has been charged or convicted of a crime or crimes against persons or property, or is involved in any other conduct that may threaten their safety and security or that of other residents. The Student will be given notice and an opportunity to appeal to the Director or an authorized designee of the Director the basis for any proposed modification or termination of this Contract.

19) SECURITY DEPOSIT: The security deposit will be held in a separate non-interest bearing account. Upon vacating the premises for termination or cancellation of this contract, the University shall return the security deposit to the student account within 30 calendar days.
