Induction Ceremony

Florida Atlantic University National Residence Hall Honorary

Dear Applicant:

NRHH is a national honorary dedicated to recognizing those individuals who work to improve their residence hall, campus, and community. Membership into this organization is very limited in the fact that entry is only available to the top 1% that live on campus nationwide. In short, to get into this organization is a big deal. The minimal requirements are as follows:

- * Minimum Cumulative GPA of a 2.5
- * Currently lives on campus
- * Has lived on campus for at least one semester prior to semester of induction
- * Demonstrates outstanding service in their residence halls
- * Displays leadership potential in their residence hall

If you are inducted into NRHH and are returning to the residence halls next year we expect that you accept the following:

- * Willingness to commit to one hour per week of some service
- * Assist in the coordination of programs, events, and recognition ceremonies
- * Act as a role model for the other students in their academic pursuits and willingness to accept leadership roles

Please complete the attached application, submit a leadership resume, and two letters of recommendation. Applications are to be completed and turned in to the Central Housing Office no later than 5pm on Wednesday, April 9, 2008. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at michaeleantoin@yahoo.com.

Thank you for your interest in FAU NRHH!!!

Sincerely,

Michaele Antoine

I, _____, hereby state that all information is accurate and true. If I am by any way found to be untruthful or mischievous I understand that I will be immediately disqualified for membership. Moreover I understand that in the leadership resume that I must list the time period in which I was involved in a student organization as well as itemize the membership from the leadership (officer) time. Any failure to do so may cost me points if it is not clear.
