

Florida Atlantic University
Annual Notification of Alcohol and Other Drug Information
2020-21

As a requirement of these regulations, Florida Atlantic University is to disseminate and ensure receipt of the below policy/information to all students, staff, and faculty on an annual basis. This process is formally conducted through electronic mail to each member of the FAU community. The messages are directed to individual addresses. Electronic communication is one of FAU's primary modes of communication to its members. Questions concerning this policy and/or alcohol and other drug programs, interventions and policies may be directed to Florida Atlantic University's Human Resources Department [for faculty/staff] at 561-297-3057, or the Dean of Student's office [for students] at 561- 297-3542.

1. Policies - Alcohol, Other Drugs, and Weapons

As an academic community, Florida Atlantic University is committed to providing an environment in which learning, and scholarship can flourish. The possession or use of illegal drugs, or the abuse of those which may otherwise be legally possessed, seriously affects the University environment, as well as the individual potential of our students, faculty, and staff. The University enforces state laws and related University policies, including those prohibiting the following activities on campus:

- Providing alcoholic beverages to individuals under 21 or possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages by individuals under 21.
- Distribution, possession, or use of illegal drugs or controlled substances.
- Possession of firearms or other dangerous weapons.

The misuse of alcohol and other drugs by students, regardless of age and of location (on-campus or off-campus), is prohibited by the Student Code of Conduct. The University can, and will, impose disciplinary sanctions for violations. Students are also subject to city ordinances, state, and federal laws. The University Alcoholic Beverages Policy addresses violations by University staff.

The University strongly encourages students, faculty, and staff members to voluntarily obtain assistance for a dependency or abuse problem before such behavior results in an arrest and/or disciplinary referral which might result in their separation from the institution.

The use of, or addiction to, alcohol, marijuana, or controlled substances is not considered an excuse for violations of the Student Code of Conduct or faculty and staff expectations and will not be a mitigating factor in the application of appropriate disciplinary sanctions for such violations.

Federal Drug-Free Schools and Campuses Regulations
[Edgar Part 86]

For students and staff members who are dependent on or who abuse the use of alcohol and/or other drugs. Help is available both on campus and within the community. Students may contact FAU Counseling and Psychological Services (561-297-3540) and faculty and staff may contact Horizon Behavioral Health (1-800-865-3200). These and other professional agencies will maintain the confidentiality of persons seeking help for personal dependency and will not report them to institutional or state authorities. Owls Care Health Promotion provides educational and awareness programming, information, and prevention resources.

2. Student Sanctions – Alcohol & Other Drugs

Underage students confronted by the institution for the consumption of alcohol will face disciplinary sanctions ranging from completion of up to fifty (50) hours of University/community service, to termination of housing contract, student conduct probation for a minimum of one year, parental notification, completion of an educational program, payment of the associated administrative costs, and possible suspension from the University.

Students whose use of alcohol or drugs results in harm or the threat of harm to themselves or others, or to property, regardless of the location of the incident, may face disciplinary action by the University up to and including expulsion.

Student organizations may also be sanctioned for violation of these policies and laws. Sanctions may range from written reprimand to revocation of recognition as a student organization

The following information, although not complete, is an overview of federal penalties for first convictions. All penalties are doubled for any subsequent drug conviction.

Denial of Federal Aid (20 USC 1091)

Under the Higher Education Act of 1998, students convicted under federal or state law for the sale or possession of drugs will have their federal financial aid eligibility suspended. This includes all federal grants, loans, federal work study programs, and more. Students convicted of drug possession will be ineligible for one year from the date of the conviction of the first offense, two years for the second offense, and indefinitely for the third offense. Penalties for federal drug trafficking convictions vary according to the quantity of the controlled substance involved in the transaction. The following list is a sample of the range and severity of federal penalties imposed for first convictions. Penalties for subsequent offenses are twice as severe.

If death or serious bodily injury result from the use of a controlled substance which has been illegally distributed, the person convicted on federal charges of distributing the substance faces mandatory life sentence and fines ranging up to $8 million.

Persons convicted on federal charges of drug trafficking within 1,000 feet of a University (21 USC Controlled Substances Act 860) face penalties of prison terms and fines which are twice the maximum punishment for the offense, with a mandatory prison sentence of at least 1 year.

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Intervention – Counseling and Psychological Services –(CAPS) (561-297-CAPS[2277]; fau.edu/counseling).

Federal Drug-Free Schools and Campuses Regulations [Edgar Part 86]

CAPS understands that undergraduate and graduate students are experiencing many stresses and demands that can tax their coping resources and impact their decisions about their use of alcohol and other substances. They may elect to see a clinician with specific expertise in the assessment of substance misuse, abuse, and dependency.

Students may have a variety of reasons for seeking help:

- Desire for assistance in moderating their use
- Concern about friends' or family members' use of alcohol or other drugs
- Referral from Owls Care Health Promotion, the Student Health Center or other medical or mental health providers
- Assistance in finding recovery resources and maintaining abstinence in the campus atmosphere
- Family request

The services that CAPS provide include the following:

- Comprehensive assessment
- Consultation
- Recommendation and referral to other agencies as indicated
- Prevention programming in collaboration with other campus partners
- Education about specific issues emerging from the assessment
- Structure and support for those trying to reduce their alcohol consumption
- Addressing the impact of alcohol and drug use on other physical or mental health diagnoses
- Short-term individual or group counseling
- Online Screenings

Through Florida Atlantic University's Human Resources Department, the Employee Assistance Program offers employees additional education and counseling, as well as appropriate referrals.

Within the Boca Raton and Palm Beach community, the following substance abuse counseling agencies exist:
