INTERNATIONAL UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

The Financial Certification Form (FCF) is a required supplemental form for international applicants seeking to obtain immigration documents for international student status (I-20 for F-1 students and DS-2019 for J-1 students). The I-20/DS-2019 is the certificate of eligibility to obtain the F-1/J-1 visa or to request a change of status to F-1/J-1. Applicants may submit the FCF and supporting documentation at any time during their admission process. The International Services (IS) office will issue the appropriate immigration document only after the applicant (1) has been formally admitted to FAU and (2) completed this form and submitted acceptable financial support documents. For information on international admission requirements and deadlines go to http://www.fau.edu/admissions/. For questions about this form and other visa/immigration requirements for international students, go to http://www.fau.edu/international.

¹Costs are estimated based on Student Financial Aid Budgets. They are subject to change without notice. ²International undergraduate students are expected to enroll for a minimum of 12 credit hours during fall and spring semester. However, they are encouraged to take 15 credit hours in order to obtain their degree within designated time. Students who begin their program in the summer are also required to enroll for a minimum of 12 credit hours during the summer in which they start the program. ³The cost per undergraduate credit hour is $719.71. For a breakdown of tuition and fees please review https://www.fau.edu/controller/student-services/tuition-breakdown ⁴Living expenses include housing, meals, transportation and incidentals and are estimated based on the university’s student financial aid budget calculations. The monthly average for living expenses is estimated at $1563. Students living with family/relatives in the area may complete the Alternate Estimate of Living Expenses. Insurance is mandatory for international students and must be purchased prior to enrollment for classes.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Funds may come from any dependable source including scholarships, sponsoring organizations, personal funds or funds from student’s family depending on which of the categories you check below. Funding documents should be dated no more than six months old at the time when the I-20/DS-2019 is issued. Original documents are preferred, but scanned/fax copies will be accepted for the initial review process. IS may request original documents or additional information in order to verify accuracy of financial support documentation. Personal and/or family funds must be submitted on the official letterhead stationary of the bank/financial institution, and must verify that the required amount (estimated cost of attendance) specific for your situation is available for your studies. All letters must be written in English, and figures should be stated in US currency.

Note: You will be required to show original financial support documentation when applying for the F1/J-1 visa at the U.S. Consulate.

Please indicate ☑ how you will be supported (you may use more than one checkmark):

☑ I am planning to support myself through personal savings in the yearly amount of US$ ___________. I have attached financial documentation to verify that this amount is available for my educational expenses at FAU.

☑ I will be supported by my parents or a sponsor. I have attached financial documentation to verify that this amount is available for my educational expenses at FAU
  ☐ Optional: In addition to the bank letter I also have attached a notarized/certified declaration from my family member/relative who resides in the U.S. and who will support me with living expenses (view Alternate Estimate of Living Expenses)

☑ My government is sponsoring my studies. I have attached a certified letter from my government which verifies that U.S. $______________ are available for me to study in Florida Atlantic University.

☑ I will be supported by an award, which I will receive from ________________________________
  ☐ The amount of this award is U.S. $ ________________, I have attached an award letter which verifies the amount and the commitment to support me in my studies in Florida Atlantic University.

Student/Sponsor Statement: I certify that the above information is correct, and that the funding amount listed above will be available for the first year and each subsequent year of study for the duration of the student’s academic program.
