Constitution Guidelines
for Registered Student Organizations
2016-2017

The purpose of the constitution is to guide a registered student organization in its operations and activities and, accordingly, are intended primarily for the organization’s benefit and use. The constitution contains the fundamental principles and structure of the organization, and the bylaws outline the basic rules of procedure by which a group’s membership govern its organization. The constitution and bylaws should be carefully formulated, clearly worded, and kept up-to-date so that the needs of the organization can be met.

An approved constitution is necessary to become a registered student organization at Florida Atlantic University and must be updated and submitted electronically to Student Involvement every year during the re-registration period or anytime the constitution is amended.

In order to be considered for approval, the student organization constitution must comply with the following format.

*Verbatim Language is indicated in RED
*Examples are indicated in BLUE

CONSTITUTION

Updated [Month, Year]

ARTICLE I. NAME OF ORGANIZATION
The name of the organization should be unique from any other registered student organizations and should reflect the nature and activities of the organization. Any organization abbreviations or acronyms should be referenced in this article. If your student organization has “Florida Atlantic University” or “FAU” in its title, it must follow the main portion of the name.

Example:
The name of this organization is Owl Lovers at FAU. Owl Lovers at FAU may also be referred to as OL in publicity materials and correspondence. Owl Lovers is affiliated with [affiliate organization (if applicable)] operating in [city, state]. The website of [affiliate organization] is [www.affiliateorganization...].
ARTICLE II. PURPOSE OF ORGANIZATION
Your organization’s purpose should be defined in clear and concise terms.

Example:
Owl Lovers is established for the purpose of bringing together people who share a common appreciation of owls.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP
Additional stipulations regarding active membership (e.g. GPA requirements, attendance requirements, etc.) should be addressed in a separate article AFTER Article IX. The following language, and no additional information about membership, should appear verbatim for Article III.

Section A. Membership in [Name of Registered Student Organization] is open to all enrolled students at Florida Atlantic University. Non-enrolled students, spouses, faculty, and staff may be associate members; however, they may not vote or hold office. All members and associate members are free to leave and disassociate without fear of retribution, retaliation, or harassment.

Section B. [Name of Registered Student Organization] shall be in full compliance with all Federal and State nondiscrimination and equal opportunity laws, orders and regulations. [Name of Registered Student Organization] shall not discriminate against a Student Officer, member or prospective member on any basis identified in FAU Regulation 5.010, except if specifically exempted by law. [Name of Registered Student Organization] shall be open to all currently enrolled FAU Students, except if specifically exempted by law.

All groups except those exempt by law must have opportunities for membership of all sexes.

ARTICLE IV. UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS
Section A. [Name of Registered Student Organization] will abide by all Federal, State and Local Laws and FAU Regulations and policies, including but not limited to the Student Code of Conduct, Code of Academic Integrity, Regulation 4.006, Alcohol and Drug Policy, and all requirements as outlined in the Registered Student Organization Manual.

Section B. [Name of Registered Student Organization] agrees to abide by the Florida Anti-Hazing Law in the Student Code of Conduct and the Registered Student Organization Manual.
ARTICLE V. OFFICERS
Registered student organizations are required to have a minimum of a President, Vice President, and Treasurer as elected officers. Please refer to FAU Regulation 4.006 for a comprehensive list of officer eligibility requirements. Section A below is required verbatim. The remaining sections of this article must contain the following information: titles of elected organization officers; titles of appointed organization officers (including appointment process – e.g. appointed by whom?); term of office; the general duties of each officer; and the procedures for handling vacancies (e.g. resignations, officer ineligibility, impeachments, or similar occurrences).

Section A. In order to be eligible for an officer position, candidates must meet requirements as specified by FAU Regulation 4.006.

Example:

Section B. The officers of this organization shall be President, Vice President, and Treasurer.

Part 1: The President shall preside at all meetings of the organization and shall coordinate the work of the officers and committees.

Part 2: The Vice-President shall serve as an aide to the President and shall perform the duties of the President in her/his absence or inability to serve.

Part 3: The Treasurer shall receive all monies of Owl Lovers; shall keep an accurate record of receipts and expenditures; shall pay out local funds in accordance with the approved budget as authorized by the organization. The Treasurer shall present a financial statement at every meeting of Owl Lovers and at other times when requested by the President or Vice President.

Section C: Officers shall assume their official duties at the close of the last general meeting of the academic year and shall serve for a term of one academic year and/or until their successors are elected/appointed.

Section D: Any officer of Owl Lovers may be removed from office through the following process:

Part 1: A written request by at least three voting members of the organization shall be submitted to either the President, Vice President, or Treasurer. Written notification shall be sent to the officer in question asking that officer to be present at the next meeting and prepared to respond to the removal request.

Part 2: A two thirds majority vote of members present is necessary to remove the officer.

Part 3: In the event of the removal of an officer, a special provision may be granted to the remaining officers to appoint an interim replacement until an election may be held.

ARTICLE VI. ELECTIONS
This article must contain the following information: the month of elections; officer eligibility; the nomination process; balloting procedures; election rules and procedures (including required margin of victory); and run-off procedures in the event of a tie.
Example:
Nominations for all officers will take place annually from the members starting in February. Any member may nominate any other voting member, including himself or herself. Nominations may also be made during the election meeting prior to closing of nominations. Voting will occur by secret ballot and a simple majority vote is required to elect an officer. If there are more than two candidates running and no candidate receives a majority vote, there shall be a run-off vote between the top two vote recipients at the next general meeting. No person shall be eligible to serve more than two consecutive terms in the same office. Elections should take place in late March to early April to allow for turnover between old and new board.

ARTICLE VII. STUDENT ORGANIZATION ADVISOR
Each registered student organization must have a student organization advisor. The student organization advisor shall serve as a resource person and provide advisory support for the officers and members of the organization. The student organization advisor must be a full-time, salaried faculty or staff member not on leave during his or her advisor term. Section A below is required verbatim. The remaining sections of this article must include: the selection method; term; duties and responsibilities; and process of replacement for student organization advisors.

Section A. All Registered Student Organizations must have least one advisor who is a full-time faculty, AMP or SP staff member at FAU.

Example:
Section B. The student organization advisor shall serve as a resource person and provide advisory support for the officers and members of the organization. The student organization advisor should attend executive and general meetings; however, the student organization advisor may not vote in any organization matters.
Section C. The student organization advisor shall be nominated by the officers and confirmed by a majority vote of the members.
Section D. The student organization advisor will serve a term of one (1) academic year.
Section E. In the event that the student organization advisor is unable to continue in their position, officers may nominate a replacement at any time, to be confirmed by a majority vote of the members.

ARTICLE VIII. FINANCE
This article must include information about how the organization will be funded. If an organization requires membership dues, the maximum dollar amount and/or other financial obligations of members, as well as when payment is due, must be clearly stated in this article. If an organization does not require membership fees or other financial obligations, a statement to that effect should be included in this article.
Example 1:
Owl Lovers will request funding from COSO to pay for events and promotional items. It will also raise funds through carwashes and similar activities to help cover the costs of other operational expenses of the organization. Members are expected to participate in these fundraising activities. Owl Lovers will not require membership dues.

Example 2:
Owl Lovers will be funded through the collection of annual membership dues in the amount of $100 to be paid during the month of September. This fee covers the cost of t-shirts, travel to leadership conferences, and other operational expenses of the organization.

ARTICLE IX. DISSOLUTION OF ORGANIZATION
Requirements and procedures for the dissolution of the student organization must be stated in this article. Should any organization assets and/or debts exist, appropriate means for disposing of these assets and/or debts must be specified clearly and unequivocally. A specific charity or organization must be designated as the recipient of any remaining assets at the dissolution of the organization. *Note: A&S Fee Funds will be distributed back to the Council of Student Organizations. This only applies to an off campus bank account.

Example:
In the event this organization dissolves, all monies left in the treasury, after outstanding debts and claims have been paid, shall be donated to “Name of charitable organization.”

ARTICLE X...
(Any articles the organization wishes to include to further clarify policies and procedures not included in previous articles may be added here. There is no limit on the number of additional articles that may be included.)

ARTICLE (insert number for FINAL Article). AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION
All constitutions must conclude with this article. The article must include: the process for amending the organization’s constitution; and the necessary vote to approve the change(s). All amended constitutions must immediately be submitted directly to the office of Student Involvement for review and approval.

Example:
Amendments to this constitution may be made at any regular meeting of Owl Lovers provided notice of the proposed amendment was given one week prior to a vote. Amendments require a two-thirds vote of the voting members in attendance at the meeting, and are subject to final approval by the office of Student Involvement.
BYLAWS (Optional)
Bylaws often accompany a constitution, and include details relating to meetings, committees, dues, voting and other governance, etc. By-laws are NOT required; however, they are recommended if your RSO wants to put common practices in writing.
