Join Dr. Jeffrey L. Buller, Dean of the Harriet L. Wilkes Honors College, on this wonderful tour of Morocco that includes Casablanca, Rabat, Fez, Merzouga Dunes, Erfoud, Marrakesh and much more. Experience the poignantly beautiful sounds, visual splendor and exotic fragrances as you visit museums, mosques, ramparts, Berber dancing, Kasbahs and natural vistas — including a special dinner and camp under the stars! This is an active tour that covers much of the country and includes up to six different lodgings.

The tour company arranging this trip is Sarah Discoveries (www.sarahtours.com). The contact person is Hamid Mernissi, who can be reached at 1-800-267-0036.

This fantastic opportunity is value priced at $2,885. Single supplement applies.

Participation in this tour requires a minimum gift of $700 to the FAU Foundation benefiting the Wilkes Honors College, in addition to the cost of the tour. This gift must be paid in advance of the trip and may be tax deductible to the fullest amount permitted by law. Special contribution discounts are as follows (only one discount may be applied):

- Standard Contribution: $700 per person
- Current Student: $200 discount
- Prior Traveler on Dr. Buller’s Trips: $150 discount
- Alumni/Faculty/Staff/Current LLS Student: $100 discount

Please contact Dianne Reeves at 561-799-8665 or dreeves@fau.edu for more information on how to participate in this tremendous opportunity to experience Morocco.