Commercial Music program provides students with valuable practical experience through internships and working on FAU’s record label, Hoot/Wisdom Recordings. Students are able to study the business of music as they develop their individual instrumental and/or vocal skills. In addition, the program offers comprehensive undergraduate and graduate programs to help students develop skills for a professional music career. The rapid growth of the music industry in recent years has created new career opportunities for talented musicians in performance and other aspects of the music business.

DEGREES

Apply and be accepted by Florida Atlantic University:

Prospective students must:

www.fau.edu

Bachelor of Music with Major in Commercial Music - Creative Track

AND

Minor in Commercial Music

The Bachelor of Music with a Major in Commercial Music is a comprehensive program designed to prepare students for a career in the music industry. The program combines musical performance with business and technology courses to provide a well-rounded education. Students can choose one of two tracks: Creative or Technology. The Creative Track focuses on performance and composition, while the Technology Track emphasizes production and technology.

MINOR

The Minor in Commercial Music is offered to all students at the University interested in the business of music. It provides students with an introduction to the business aspects of the music industry.

GRADUATE

The Master of Science in Music Business Administration is a program designed for students with an interest in the business side of the music industry. The program combines study in business administration and music with a focus on the business aspects of the music industry. Students will complete a master's project under the supervision of a faculty member who is well versed in business or the music industry.

At the end of the program, students will complete a master's project under the supervision of a faculty member who is well versed in business or the music industry. The program will provide an opportunity to gain first-hand experience in the management of a commercial music enterprise. Applicant must submit a proposal for the master's project to the Department of Music.

The mission of the Florida Atlantic University Department of Music is to offer comprehensive academic and performance training in all aspects of the discipline in order to prepare students for a career in the music industry. The Department offers a variety of ensembles and courses to provide students with opportunities to broaden their musical experience.

The Bachelor of Music with a Major in Commercial Music is designed to provide students with a comprehensive education in the music industry. The program combines musical performance with business and technology courses to provide a well-rounded education. Students can choose one of two tracks: Creative or Technology. The Creative Track focuses on performance and composition, while the Technology Track emphasizes production and technology.

The Minor in Commercial Music is offered to all students at the University interested in the business of music. It provides students with an introduction to the business aspects of the music industry.

The Master of Science in Music Business Administration is a program designed for students with an interest in the business side of the music industry. The program combines study in business administration and music with a focus on the business aspects of the music industry. Students will complete a master's project under the supervision of a faculty member who is well versed in business or the music industry.

At the end of the program, students will complete a master's project under the supervision of a faculty member who is well versed in business or the music industry. The program will provide an opportunity to gain first-hand experience in the management of a commercial music enterprise. Applicant must submit a proposal for the master's project to the Department of Music.

The mission of the Florida Atlantic University Department of Music is to offer comprehensive academic and performance training in all aspects of the discipline in order to prepare students for a career in the music industry. The Department offers a variety of ensembles and courses to provide students with opportunities to broaden their musical experience.