

Transfer Student Checklist

Before Orientation

- Register for orientation
- Complete and submit your immunization records
- Complete and submit your housing application (and pay deposit) Complete and submit your FAFSA
- Log into and familiarize yourself with your MyFAU account
- Register (and pay deposit) for your meal plan
- Friend FAU Orientation on Facebook for updates
- Follow us on Twitter: FAUOrientation
- Students with disabilities should start the process of registering with our Office of Disabilities for services.
-

During Orientation

- Items to bring with you to orientation:
 - State or Federal issued photo ID card
 - Your Z number
 - Your orientation confirmation letter
 - Paper and a pen or pencil
 - Comfortable clothes and shoes and a sweater (some of the rooms are cold)
 - An umbrella (this is South Florida!)
 - Your questions and concerns
 - A positive attitude!
- Get your Owl Card (student ID) at the Owl Card Center in the Student Union
- Visit the Bookstore or Logo Shop to get all your FAU Gear
- Open a free checking account at Bank Atlantic on campus.

After Orientation

- On-Campus Housing Students:
 - Contact your roommate (Information will come through the US Mail in July)
 - Forward your mail to FAU campus with the US Postal Service (information will be sent to you in July)
 - Check all insurance policies and purchase renters insurance if necessary
- Off-Campus/Commuting Students:
 - Decide how you will get to FAU, especially if you will be commuting. Transportation options are listed
 - Sign-up for our car pool program

- Engrave all your valuables with your driver's license number
- Record the serial number of all electronics
- Visit all doctors (dentist, optometrist, primary (for physical) etc.)
- In August after you receive the e-mail with the information, and at least 24 hours after you have registered for classes, register for your parking decal
- Send all transcripts and test scores to the Office of Admissions
- Start looking for a job on campus for fall: Federal Work-Study or Non-Federal Work-Study
- Schedule an appointment with your advisor. Call 561-297-3000 to speak to their office if you haven't already been advised
- Take the Math Placement Test if you are taking math at FAU in your first semester
- After you have registered for classes, order your books through Self-Service Owls on MyFAU for pick up when school starts
- Check out the Weeks of Welcome webpage to see what there is to do at FAU when classes start
- Find a club to join