

RESPONSIBLE CONDUCT OF RESEARCH WORKSHOPS

The RCR series is comprised of four modules and covers core research competencies pertinent to graduate student research. Join to obtain insider knowledge on best practices and guidelines for researchers. Lunch and snacks will be provided

Those being paid from a National Institutes of Health (NIH) funded study are required to complete all four workshops.

Students who complete all four modules will receive a certificate recognized by the Vice President for Research

LOCATION

All sessions will take place on the Boca Campus in Office Building One (ME-104), Room 319
