Florida Atlantic University Peace Studies Program

Mission Statement

The Peace Studies Program at Florida Atlantic University is committed to the extensive investigation and understanding of the causes of peace from a multidisciplinary perspective.

Program Description

Established in 1999 in the Dorothy F. Schmidt College of Arts and Letters, the Peace Studies Program at Florida Atlantic University promotes interdisciplinary studies to understand the complex need for peace and conflict resolution.

The program is designed to provide students with a deeper understanding of the complexity of peace and the resolution of conflict from an interdisciplinary perspective. Students from different disciplines can engage with a wide range of issues of peace, cooperation, and justice. The Peace Studies Program offers students a number of opportunities to participate in its activities at various levels of study.
