FROM: Diane E. Alperin, Associate Provost
       Academic Personnel

DATE: August 20, 2013

SUBJECT: SABBATICALS FOR 2014-2015

The sabbatical program is announced at this time to permit you to make an early application and seek other support, if needed, for your sabbatical activities. A limited number of sabbaticals (17) for one semester at full pay will be available. Sabbaticals at half-pay shall also be made available. No more than one employee in a department need be awarded a sabbatical during the same term.

The 2014-15 awards will be made as follows:

1. Sabbaticals are granted to increase the faculty member’s/librarian's value to the University through enhanced opportunities for professional renewal, planned travel, study, formal education, research, writing, or other experience of professional value. This is not a reward for service.

2. Full-time employees who at the time of application are tenured Associate Professors, Professors, Associate University Librarians, or University Librarians, and who have completed at least six years of full-time service prior to the start of the sabbatical, are eligible to apply for sabbaticals. An employee who is compensated through a contract or grant may receive a sabbatical only if the terms of the contract or grant through which such an employee may be compensated allows for such sabbaticals and the employee meets all other eligibility requirements.

3. An employee who is compensated through a contract or grant may receive a sabbatical only if the terms of the contract or grant through which such an employee may be compensated allows for such sabbaticals and the employee meets all other eligibility requirements. Faculty must coordinate with the Sponsored Programs Office, and other compliance offices such as Research Integrity and Environmental Health and Safety, to insure that all sponsor and FAU compliance related matters have been addressed prior to sabbatical.

4. If there are more applicants for one semester sabbaticals at full pay than available sabbaticals, the Research Committee of the University Faculty Senate shall rank the applicants. The selection of those to receive sabbaticals shall be based on a program proposal which includes a statement of intent. The following are the primary elements to be considered in the ranking process:

   a. The employee's written statement describing the program and activities to be followed while on sabbatical;

   b. The expected increase in value of the employee to the University and the employee's academic discipline;

   c. Specific results anticipated from the leave;

   d. The benefits of the proposed program to the employee, the university, and the profession;

   e. An equitable distribution of sabbaticals among colleges, the library, schools, departments, and disciplines within the university; and

   f. The length of time since the employee was last relieved of teaching/librarian duties for the purpose of research and other scholarly activities. This needs to include all release time awarded, in addition to past sabbaticals.

4. The sabbatical must be during the regular contractual period which will not include the summer term(s).

TERMS OF SABBATICAL PROGRAM

1. While on sabbatical, the employee’s salary shall be one half-pay for two (2) semesters (one (1) academic year), or full-pay for one semester.

2. Faculty who are on full year/half pay sabbaticals cannot be on deferred pay during their sabbatical time. They can resume deferred pay when they return.

3. The employee must return to the university for at least one (1) academic year following participation in the program. Agreements to the contrary must be reduced to writing prior to participation. Return to the University salary received during the program will be required in those instances where neither of the above is satisfied.

4. The employee must, within sixty (60) days upon completion of the sabbatical, provide a concise written report of the employee’s accomplishments during the sabbatical to the Associate Provost, Academic Personnel. This report shall include information regarding the activities undertaken during the sabbatical, the results accomplished during the sabbatical as they affect the employee and the university, and research or other scholarly work produced or expected to be produced as a result of the sabbatical.

5. Employees shall not normally be eligible for a subsequent sabbatical until six (6) years of continuous service are completed following the first. Eligible employees may apply for a subsequent sabbatical during the sixth year.

6. Contributions normally made to retirement and Social Security programs shall be continued on a basis proportional to the salary received. Contributions normally made to employee insurance programs and any other employee benefit programs shall be continued during the sabbatical.

7. Eligible employees shall continue to accrue annual and sick leave on a full-time basis during the sabbatical.

8. Faculty on sabbatical must ensure that their graduate and undergraduate student advisees are supervised by appropriate faculty during their absence. Moreover, any facilities responsibilities and/or research must be properly monitored by authorized personnel.

9. While on leave, an employee shall be permitted to receive funds for travel and living expenses, and other sabbatical-related expenses, from sources other than the university such as fellowships, grants-in-aid, and contracts and grants, to assist in accomplishing the purposes of the sabbatical. Receipt of funds for such purposes shall not result in reduction of the employee’s university salary. Grants for such financial assistance from other sources may, but need not be administered through the university. If financial assistance is received in the form of salary, the university salary shall normally be reduced by the amount necessary to bring the total income of the sabbatical period to a level comparable to 125% of the employee’s current year salary rate. Employment unrelated to the purpose of the sabbatical leave must not create a conflict of interest.
10. If plans include providing technical information to persons who are not United States citizens, an employee must consult with the Office of General Counsel prior to departure. The provision of technical knowledge outside the United States is considered an export and is regulated by the U.S. Commerce Department or the State Department, depending upon the type of knowledge being exported. Those agencies require a license before the knowledge may be communicated.

Sabbatical applications are reviewed electronically by the Research Committee of the University Faculty Senate. Applications should move forward electronically - from the applicant, to the Chair/Director/Head, to the Dean – with new materials added along the way. All required application materials need to be forwarded electronically together to the Office of the Provost.

Please consider University timelines as you prepare your application. The Deans will also be asked to set internal college deadlines.

Please submit your entire application electronically to Erma I. Bennett (ebenne12@fau.edu) no later than October 4, 2013. The entire application needs to be submitted together and needs to include all the items (1-6) listed below. In the instances where there are multiple applications from a single unit, the Chair/Head/Director is to verify that staffing considerations can be resolved and that any withdrawn applications will be awarded the highest priority for the following year. The application should include the following:

1. Application (see attached).
2. Attach a narrative of 2-3 pages describing the program of studies or other activities you propose to follow during your sabbatical, the expected increase in value of the University and the relationship of same to your teaching and/or research program, and specific results anticipated from the leave.
