

ERIC ALEXANDER COMPUTER SCIENCE SCHOLARSHIP AWARD TREASURE COAST CAMPUS, FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY

Florida Atlantic University (FAU) Treasure Coast Campus is proud to offer the Eric Alexander Computer Science Scholarship Award. It is comprised of Mr. Eric Alexander's personal gift endowment and support from the State of Florida's matching program. The Eric Alexander Computer Science Scholarship Award is a part of the TOP Scholars Program (Treasure Coast Campus Opportunities for Professional Development) which recognizes outstanding academic achievement by providing financial assistance to students attending the Treasure Coast Campus of Florida Atlantic University.

Florida Atlantic University is working to build a strong tradition of tuition assistance programs. This scholarship program is focused on advancing our Computer Science programs on the Treasure Coast Campus. It will provide many opportunities to deserving students and will leave a lasting legacy on campus for future generations.

CRITERIA

- Applicants must be part-time or full-time students enrolled or accepted to be enrolled at the FAU Treasure Coast Campus with a declared major in computer science or information engineering technology.
- Applicants must demonstrate academic progress towards a degree.
- A personal statement demonstrating interest in computer science (ex: academic achievement, research, work experience, aspirations) must accompany the application.
- An unofficial transcript must accompany the application (can be downloaded at www.facts.org).
- Past-recipients are eligible to apply for the scholarship again if they have maintained or exceeded a 3.0 GPA. Past-recipients must repeat the entire application process.
- The scholarship will be an award of $400 per recipient, per semester, applied to the recipient's institutional tuition and fees.
