This form is used to establish residency status for tuition purposes for non-degree seeking students at Florida Atlantic University. All New non-degree students, or those who have not attended FAU within the last year, must complete this form. This form should be submitted by mail with your non-degree enrollment application. If you are a transient Student from another State University in Florida, a State University System Transient Student form can be used in lieu of this form.

Student Name: _____ Student ID #: _____

Term applying for: _____ Daytime phone: (_____) _____

Legal permanent home address: _____

Student's address and if under 25, parent's name and address: _____

Note: if you are a non-U.S. citizen, please see important information in Section a. and Part 1-#6 below.

A Florida "resident for tuition purpose" is a person who (or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian) has established and maintained legal residence in Florida for at least 12 months immediately preceding the first day of class for the term you wish to pay in-state fees. Other persons not meeting the 12-month legal residence requirement may be classified as Florida residents or "temporary residents" for tuition purposes only if they fall within one of the limited special categories listed below as authorized by the Florida Legislature and Florida Board of Governors Resolution dated April 21, 2005 (adopting Florida Department of Education Rule 6A-10.044). All other persons are ineligible for classification as a Florida "resident for tuition purposes."

IMPORTANT: BE AWARE THAT THIS FORM IS SUBJECT TO REVIEW & THE RESIDENCY DETERMINATION MADE MAY BE CHANGE. IF YOUR RESIDENCY IS CHANGE, YOU WILL BE NOTIFIED BY MAIL!

- a. To qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes, you must be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident alien or legal alien granted indefinite stay by U.S. Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (B.C.I.S) or one of the following visa categories which have been approved by the State of Florida for eligibility (all other residency requirements also apply): A, E, G, H-1, H-4, I, K, L, N, O-1, O-3, R, NATO 1-7.
- b. Living or attending school in Florida will not, in itself, establish legal residence.
- c. Students who depend on out-of-state parents for support are presumed under law to be legal residents of the same state as their parents.
- d. Residence in Florida must be for the purpose of establishing a permanent home and not merely for enrollment at an institution of higher education.
- e. Documents supporting the establishment of legal residence must be issued or filed 12 months before the first day of classes of the term for which a Florida resident classification is sought.

2.4 Exceptions/Qualifications

Statutory Exceptions. Section 1009.21, Florida Statutes, permits certain applicants who do not meet the 12-month legal residence requirement to be classified as Florida residents or "temporary residents" for tuition purposes. The institution will require documentation in support of the above exceptions; however, the student does not have to show 12 months of residence in Florida prior to qualifying. These exceptional categories are as follows:

- 1. United States citizens living on the Isthmus of Panama, who have completed 12 consecutive months of college work at the Florida State University Panama Canal Branch, and their spouses and dependent children.
- 2. United States citizens living outside the United States who are teaching at a Department of Defense Dependent School or in an American International School and who enroll in a graduate level education program which leads to a Florida teaching certificate.
- 3. Active duty members of the Canadian military residing or stationed in this state under the North American Air Defense (NORAD) agreement, and their spouses and dependent children, attending a public community college or university within 50 miles of the military establishment where they are stationed.
- 4. Active duty members of a foreign nation's military who are serving as liaison officers and are residing or stationed in this state, and their spouses and dependent children, attending a community college or state university within 50 miles of the military establishment where the foreign liaison officer is stationed.
- 5. Linkage Institute participants receiving partial or full exemptions from S. 1009.21, FS, based on criteria approved by the Florida Department of Education per S. 288.8175, FS, which establishes linkage institutes between postsecondary institutions in this state and foreign countries. See Section 7.0, Immigration and International Student Issues, for more information on Linkage Institutes.
