Regulation 5.007 Separations from Employment

(1) Separations from employment shall be administered consistent with the following provisions:

(a) Resignation. An employee who resigns from employment shall not have any grievance rights or rights of appeal. Once tendered, a resignation is deemed accepted, and may not be rescinded by the employee without concurrence of the University.

(b) Abandonment. An employee who is absent without approved leave for three or more consecutive workdays shall be considered to have abandoned the position.

(c) Notice of Separation. An out of unit Faculty or Administrative, Managerial and Professional employee who receives a Separation Notice in accordance with Regulation 5.008, and whose notice period has ended, may be separated without further notice.

(d) Just Cause. The President or designated Vice President or Provost may dismiss an employee for just cause in accordance with Regulation 5.012.

(e)  Layoff. The University may lay off an employee at any time as a result of adverse financial circumstances; reallocation of resources; reorganization of degree or curriculum offerings or requirements; reorganization of academic or administrative structures, programs, or functions; curtailment or abolishment of one or more programs or functions; shortage of work; or a material change of duties. Layoff shall be conducted in accordance with University policy.

(f) Expiration of Term. The employment of employees holding time limited appointments and employees who are issued an offer letter with a preset termination date will automatically cease on the date indicated. No other notice of cessation of employment is required.

(e2) Probationary, and Temporary and Acting employees. Probationary and Temporary employees may be separated from employment at any time without any requirement of notice or reason and without right of appeal or grievance. Probationary employees who have been employed more than 90 days may be given two weeks advance notice or the equivalent severance pay at the sole discretion of the supervisor and with the approval of the Provost or Vice President.
(3) Other Positions. Employees in the following categories may be separated from employment at any time upon 30 days advance notice without right of appeal or grievance:

1. Employees holding acting appointments.
2. Employees holding visiting appointments.
3. Employees holding time limited appointments.
4. Employees who are appointed for less than one academic year.
5. Employees who are in positions funded through contracts and grants (not overhead funds).

(2) The University may lay off an employee at any time as a result of adverse financial circumstances; reallocation of resources; reorganization of degree or curriculum offerings or requirements; reorganization of academic or administrative structures, programs, or functions; curtailment or abolishment of one or more programs or functions; shortage of work; or a material change of duties. Layoff shall be conducted in accordance with University policy.
