2016 Researcher and Scholar of the Year Awards

2016 Researcher of the Year Awards
Deadline: January 25, 2016

The University Research Committee invites applications and nominations for the 2016 Researcher of the Year Awards. One $2,500 award will be made for each faculty rank (assistant/associate/full) to honor excellence in sponsored and project-oriented research, with particular emphasis on externally funded research.

2016 Scholar of the Year Awards
Deadline: January 25, 2016

The University Research Committee invites applications and nominations for the 2016 Scholar of the Year Awards. One $2,500 award will be made for each faculty rank (assistant/associate/full) to honor excellence in scholarly activities.

Click here for guidelines and application forms for both competitions or visit www.fau.edu/research/internal_awards.php

Award Structure
• If a winner elects to take the award as a salary subsidy, the awarded amount will be $2,500 less taxes.
• If a winner elects to use the award to provide additional support for his or her research project, the Division of Research will provide a 1:1 match (awardee salary reimbursement is excluded). If a winner elects this option, he or she must provide a project plan and detailed budget for University Research Committee review before the funds are released.

Eligibility
• All tenured and tenure-track faculty, including research faculty (with the exception of FAU Eminent Scholars and FAU Distinguished Professors) and all faculty librarians, are eligible if they have been on the FAU payroll for three years by the application date.
• Previous winners who have retained the same rank must wait five years to become eligible again.
• A dean can nominate only one person at each rank for Researcher of the Year and for Scholar of the Year.
