Protective Clothing
1. Personnel working in an animal facility will wear proper protective clothing at all times as determined by Environmental Health & Safety, Occupational Health Committee and the facility manager.
   a. Employees of the University assigned duties involved with the care of animals and their facilities are required to wear protective clothing at all times.
      i. Protective clothing will be provided by the University
      ii. Personnel working in the cage wash area are required to wear protective shoes in addition to other protective clothes requirements
      iii. Personnel working in the animal facilities are required to wear closed toe shoes (no sandals).
   b. Other persons entering into an animal facility or working with animals will wear protective clothing appropriate for the species and level of involvement