The Division of Research is proud to welcome

Barbara Ashbrook

Assistant Director of the Division of Education Programs at the National Endowment for the Humanities

Ms. Ashbrook has played a central role in building the agency's programs to support the intellectual development of educators at every level, which remains a primary commitment of the Education division. She has oversight on several grant programs including Landmarks of American History and Culture, Enduring Questions and Bridging Cultures at Community Colleges. She has also had significant involvement in agency-wide initiatives at NEH, with responsibilities for creating new programs in the digital humanities, representing the agency in a multi-year education partnership with Brazil, and attracting corporate support for the launch of EDSITEment.

National Endowment for the Humanities: Funding and Programs Overview

November 26, 2012

1:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Boca Campus CM-22, Room 133 (OIT Conference Room)

Videoconferencing available to Jupiter Campus HC 130

Note: a limited number of one-on-one sessions will be offered immediately following the general presentation. These will be scheduled on a first come first served basis and will be held on the Boca Raton campus only.

Click here to register

Questions? Contact Beth C. Barak, FAU Division of Research, at 561-297-2311 or bbarak@fau.edu