Student Government Advisor’s Report:

D. Bynes:

Currently, we have 15 candidates. 14 for the house, 1 for senator. Meet and Greet is tomorrow at 6 o’clock, in the lobby.

Decades Party is this Friday, at 8, at downtown – dress from a decade, 50’s and up.
Laser tag is the 17th.

Broward statutes have been approved.

Cannot campaign in any A and S buildings, like wellness center and student union. I would recommend making flyers to put in hands. But it all needs to be approved by elections board, and SIL before it goes up.

Budget Oversight Chair: Rep. Taher: No Report
Rules Chair: Pro Temp Schlissel: No Report
PR Committee Chair: Rep. Logan: No Report

Legislative Report:

Speaker Newton:

Tomorrow is Campus Address 12-2, Davie Campus. Please show of hands who will come (Alaa, Natalie, Melissa, Dan, and Alex raised their hands)

Elections are September 13th and 14th. Please talk to David if you couldn’t make it to the meeting. There will be voting stations downstairs in computer lab. Get out there and I hope everyone gets reelected.

9/13 is Constitution Day, 4-6pm. There will be apple pie, ice cream, American flags and pocket constitutions, and more.

Were running low on promo shirts. We may need a new design, join the house may not be good to have after elections. If anyone has an idea for a design, please send it to me, it’s got to promote the house.

Rep. Logan: Is it possible to have our constitution available for const day?
D. Bynes: What would be the objective?
Rep. Logan: Not to give out, just to have if someone wants to see.
D. Bynes: Maybe also put in an insert in the pockets constitutions with a link to our const and maybe a sticker that says sponsored by house.
Speaker Newton: Yeah we can do that.

Logan: Can we have better promo items?
Speaker Newton: I’ll give you guys the list of vendors and you can look through it and see what you like and make some suggestions.

Marquez: ASA has a booklet with stickies and post its.

Taher: How much do we have in budget?
Schlissel: $ 4,600. $1000 in budget

Motion to extend Speaker’s time: Move by Rep. Logan, Second by Rep. Sharrow

Sharrow: When do we start using money for this year?
Speaker: we’ve already started, in July.

D. Bynes: Consider why you need prom items and what has worked.
Nowicki – Getting pins would be nice too.
