4. Reports
   a) SAVI: Director Norcini reported that on the previous Saturday (10/22/2011) the university wide event “Make a Difference Day” was held. The event “Cupcakes for Caring” will be held during Homecoming week as the service project. On November 19, 2011”Kickball for Caring” will be taking place, Director Norcini is looking for more teammates and the registration fee will be paid by SAVI.
   b) COSO: Director Allore met with the Broward and Boca COSO directors to plan a university wide student organization recognition program. They also discussed and implemented a university wide COSO logo. Director Allore has a number of student organizations already signed up for the Honors College Visit Day and CarnivOWL. The appointments for the COSO executive board are up for approval at the House Meeting on 10/28. November 14, 2011 will be the next COSO meeting.
c) Marketing: Director Estes has been focusing on a marketing campaign for Homecoming and only the most pertinent items.
d) Treasurer: The budget process for next year is starting, if there are questions, they can be directed to Kadeem. The Student Government purchasing card has been maxed out and cannot be used again until November 18, 2011. If students stop by the office looking for Kadeem and he is not in, tell the students when his office hours are and have students email Kadeem.
e) NCGC: Director Gordon has two projects: graduate students will be going to Capital Grill for a networking function and on November 18, 2011 are the Owl Awards. On November 1&2, 2011 Director Gordon will be sorting through nominations for Owl awards. Director Gordon is also preparing for the calendar that the graduate students are putting together; deadline for student submissions is November 14, 2011.
f) Program Board: Family Day was a success for the Program Board; they hosted BINGO. Many of their efforts have been focused on the Halloween Ball (10/28/2011) and the Homecoming CarnivOWL (10/31/2011). At the Halloween ball there will be prizes for single, couple, and group costumes. The CarnivOWL will be from 4-8. The Coffee House preview night is November 14, 2011.
g) House of Representatives: At the previous meeting, three bills were passed. The next meeting will be October 28, 2011 in SR 108 at 2:30 PM.
h) Campus Recreation: The trip to Laser Quest will take place on November 10, 2011; the signups will be November 1&2, 2011. The Faculty Student Softball Games has been rescheduled to November 18, 2011. Lastly, intramurals for Volleyball and Frisbee are still ongoing and going smoothly.
i) Advisor: Students who have had code of conduct issues will be helping to setup and take down at various events to earn community service hours. It is important to stay positive and support all members of Student Government, especially with all of the upcoming events.
j) Governor: There will be no one-on-ones next week due to all of the Homecoming events. Governor Lange had a meeting with Dr. Brown that was very productive. Construction in the Burrow should be starting on Thursday, November 3, 2011. The constitution Revision Committee meeting was cancelled and a new meeting date has not yet been established.

5. GAC Discussion:
a) In one-on-ones everyone will be reviewing their goals and seeing where they are in achieving each goal.
b) The Budget process is underway and budgets are due on November 14, 2011. If you have any questions direct them to Governor Lange or Treasurer Ricketts.
c) By executive order, President Maher has instituted a SG seal that must be put on any marketing item that is paid for by student fees. There was much discussion amongst the GAC with the problems members saw in the seal. Governor Lange will report the criticism and concerns that the members found with the seal.
6. Open Forum
   a) MacRSA is cosponsoring the Halloween ball with Program Board and working diligently on that. The housing talent show was 10/20/2011 and everybody is pleased with the outcome. The penny wars with donations going towards the Race for the Cure. There is a housing conference in Atlanta, Georgia that members of MacRSA will be going to. A luau themed meal is another upcoming event for MacRSA. Lastly, MacRSA will be sponsoring transportation to the Timucua Pageant on the Boca Raton campus to support Donald Capi and Calvin Bankert.
