“New Printer for Student Government”

Sponsor(s): Boris Bastidas

The current Government office requires the printing and copying of tasks for all the entities and offices such as the House, the GAC, the President and Vice President, the Chief Justice and other offices, and;

- Bills and resolutions, meeting minutes and house agendas that the representatives works with are all printed from this printer,

- The old and has been jamming and operating inconsistently, and

- It is supposed to be double sided end up with some pages being produced, and;

- Government spends a significant amount of funding each year on replacing and sending to the Toshiba store on campus. and;

- A printer that works better, can print in color and can be used for projects as well as typical uses would be a much needed Government office, NOW.

Resolved: That the House of Representatives allocates the budget account (520012) to purchase a new printer for the
