TITLE II. Fiscal and Finance

Chapter 200. Fiscal and Finance Code

200.100 Purpose – The purpose of this chapter is to define and outline the standards of financial accountability and fiscal management, which the Student Government has established as objectives of self-governance.

201.000 Authority – Pursuant to Florida Statutes 1009.24(9)(a);

201.100 The FAU Board of Trustees has established an Activity and Service (A&S) Fee that is collected as a component of tuition and fees and is retained by the University and paid into a separate A&S fund.

201.200 The allocation and expenditure of the A&S fund shall be determined by Student Government of FAU. The Student Senate shall be responsible for allocating funds for University-Wide expenses and the individual Campus Houses of Representatives shall be responsible for allocating funds for their individual campuses.

201.300 The Student Activity and Service Fee shall be expended for lawful purposes to benefit the Student Body in general. This shall include, but shall not be limited to, student publications and grants to duly recognized student organizations, the membership of which is open to all students at the University without regard to race, color, religion, age, disability, sex, national origin, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, or any legally protected class or basis. The fund may not benefit activities for which an admission fee is charged to students, except for Student Government sponsored concerts.

201.400 The University President shall have fifteen (15) business days from the date of presentation of the budget to act on the allocation and expenditure recommendations, which shall be deemed approved if no action is taken within the fifteen (15) business days. If any line item or portion thereof within the budget is vetoed, the Student Senate shall within fifteen (15) business days make new budget recommendations for expenditure of the vetoed portion of the fund. If the University President vetoes any line item or portion thereof within the new budget revision, the University President may reallocate by line item that vetoed portion to bond obligations guaranteed by Activity and Service Fees.
202.000 Applicability

202.100 This chapter is applicable to all branches of Student Government, all SG Programs, all Registered Student Organizations, funding boards, and all other entities that receive Activity and Service Fee funding.

203.000 Definitions

203.100 Budget – plan of financial operation embodying an estimate of proposed expenditures for a given period or purpose and the proposed means or sources for financing such.

203.200 Fiscal Year – the fiscal year of the Student Government of Florida Atlantic University shall be from July 1 to June 30.

203.300 Activity & Service Fee Accounting & Budget Office (ASAB) (ASAB) – The office services the accounting, budget process, personnel, payroll, travel, and/or purchasing needs of A&S Fee funded entities.

203.310 The ASAB will coordinate training regarding fiscal procedures for all Student Organizations and any A&S Fee funded entity.

203.320 The ASAB will be responsible for publishing a policies and procedures manual for A&S Fee budgeting and expenditures. The SG Accounting and Budget Office is part of the Division of Student Affairs of FAU.

203.330 The ASAB will be responsible for creating and distributing the annual budget process timeline and sending all related correspondence to account managers of A&S Fee funds.

203.331 The ASAB Office will publish the annual budget process timeline with input from SG Advisors and campus COSO advisors.

203.400 Student Organization – any organized student group registered with the Florida Atlantic University Division of Student Affairs.

203.500 Program - An entity which receives its operating revenue directly from an allocation within the A&S Fee Budget. A program shall provide direct service to the Student Body of Florida Atlantic University. Programs may include other entities coordinated and overseen by Student Affairs but paid by A&S Fees, or may be led by student leaders.

203.600 A&S fee funded departments – A Student Affairs department that receives its operating revenue directly from an allocation within the A&S Fee Budget, is led by a professional staff member and whose duties, compositions and mission are outlined in statute. A department shall provide auxiliary service to Student Government and is characterized by its autonomous nature.

204.000 General Regulations and Policies

204.100 All expenditures of A&S Fees shall be conducted through regulations, policies and procedures of Florida Atlantic University and follow all applicable State of Florida guidelines; i.e. purchasing, travel, employment, etc.

204.200 A&S Fees must be spent in accordance with a particular entity’s budget allocation as approved by Student Government. Any variance from the budget allocation is subject to the approval of Student Government Accounting and Budget Office.

204.300 No A&S Fee monies may be deposited by any entity into an off-campus bank account.

204.400 No A&S Fee account may go into deficit.

204.500 No A&S Fees shall be used on or in behalf of any political campaign.

204.510 Political campaigns shall be defined as any person or party running for any position in: Student Government Elections or Any Campus Election, Local Elections, State Elections, and/or National Elections.

204.600 A&S Fees shall not be spent to directly benefit non-FAU students, excluding the use of A&S monies by Student Government for the following purposes.

204.610 Recognition of faculty and staff who have assisted in SG endeavors including Advisors for Student Organizations.

204.620 Recognition of non-FAU persons and or entities that have assisted with SG endeavors.

204.700 A&S Fees shall not be expended toward purchases of alcohol, tobacco, or firearms.

204.800 All A&S Fee funded entity events shall be open to all students at no charge with the exception of Student Government and Program Board sponsored events such as concerts.

204.900 All A&S fee funded entities are required to be fiscally responsible as outlined in the ASAB’s financial policy and procedure manual.

204.910 Any alleged acts of fiscal irresponsibility must be reported to ASAB personnel.

205.000 Remuneration

205.100 No Student Government Officer or Employee shall be remunerated unless so established in the current operating budget, or in an amended budget, and all employment paperwork has been approved prior to commencing work.

205.200 Student Government Officers and Employees shall be remunerated as established in their respective budgets.

205.300 All Student Government employees are bound by the University’s regulations and policies governing both temporary and student employees.
