303.000 Election Funding
Sufficient funds shall be available for the election process from the Student Government Activity and Service Fee Budget in the SG Elections account.

304.000 Elections Board

304.100 Composition of the Elections Board. The Elections Board shall consist of at least five (5) FAU students, at least one (1) student from each of three (3) campus groupings: Boca Raton, Broward, Northern Campuses, and an Elections Marketing Director, led by the Chair of Elections.

304.110 The Supervisor of Elections may create any unpaid, volunteer position, that he or she deems necessary and proper provided that the Student Senate is notified of the action in writing.

304.111 Any unpaid, volunteer positions created by the Supervisor of Elections will not be considered part of the Elections Board.

304.120 The Elections board will play an active monitoring role during the campaign period.

304.130 All elections board members are to attend a training regarding their positions and the elections process at least one (1) month prior to an election period, unless hired after that point, at which point they will be individually trained by the Supervisor of Elections.

304.131 The Elections Board training shall be created, facilitated and ran by the Supervisor of Elections along with Student Government Advisors.

304.132 If an employee or volunteer misses training, that employee or volunteer will have fourteen (14) regular days from said training to complete a make-up training.

304.133 Makeup trainings will occur if the employee is hired after the semester training has occurred, and will occur within fourteen (14) regular days of the official hiring date.

304.200 Selection of the Members of the Elections Board

304.210 The Supervisor of Elections shall be selected through an appointment process initiated by the Student Body President within thirty (30) business days after the inauguration of the Student Body President and confirmed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Student Senate.
304.220 The three (3) campus based Elections Board Commissioners shall be selected through an application process by the Supervisor of Elections within sixty (60) business days after the Supervisor’s confirmation by the Student Senate.

304.230 Each Elections Board Commissioner and the Assistant Supervisor of Elections must be confirmed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Student Senate.

304.240 All Elections Board positions are open to any member of the FAU student body.

304.250 Each and every member of the Elections Board must meet and maintain the minimum qualifications for eligibility as stated in University Regulation 4.006.

304.300 Neutrality of the Elections Board

304.310 No member of the Elections Board may endorse or campaign for any candidate or ticket for an elected position in Student Government, nor shall they act in any partisan manner while they are serving as members of the Elections Board.

304.320 No member of the Elections Board may hold or be a candidate for an elected or appointed position elsewhere within Student Government during their term on the Elections Board.

304.400 Resignation or Removal of Members of the Elections Board

304.410 Failure to attend three consecutive meetings of the Elections Board without prior notification to the Chair of Elections shall constitute an automatic removal from the Elections Board. This includes private meetings between an Elections Board member and another Elections Board Member and/or an Elections Board Member and the Student Government Advisors.

304.420 In the event of a student complaint, including from a member of Student Government, against a member of the Elections Board, including the Chair of Elections, to the Student Court via the Student Government Advisors, the Student Court shall meet and determine if an Elections Board member may have violated the Elections Statutes.

304.421 If the Student Court decides that an Elections Board member may have committed a violation of the Elections
Statutes, it shall follow procedures for such hearings as detailed in Chapter 600.

304.430 At the recommendation of the Student Court, the Student Body President may remove any member of the Elections Board with the concurrence of a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Student Senate.

304.440 An Elections Board member who is removed from office may appeal to the Student Court via the Student Government Advisors.

304.441 Appeals of Student Court decisions should be directed to the Vice President of Student Affairs.

304.500 Vacancy of an Elections Board Member - Filling a vacancy due to the untimely removal or resignation of an Elections Board member, including Chair of Elections, shall follow the selection and confirmation process stated in Chapter 304.200 as needed. This replacement excludes the clause stating that the appointment process initiated by the Student Body President must be within thirty (30) business days after the inauguration of the Student Body President.

304.510 Supervisor of Elections Board Vacancy - If the Supervisor of Elections position is vacant, the succession process is as follows: The Assistant Supervisor of Elections will be appointed as the Interim Supervisor of Elections by the Student Body President. If the Assistant Supervisor of Elections is not eligible for the position due to any reason regarding eligibility or that is freely stated by the Assistant Supervisor of Elections, the Student Body President will appoint the Elections Board Commissioner (that being the Boca raton Commissioner, the Jupiter Commissioner, or the Broward Commissioner), that the Student Body President deems the most capable out of the three.

304.511 The temporary appointment of an Interim Supervisor of Elections must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Student Senate.

304.512 The Student Body President must submit the position of Supervisor of Elections vacancy within (1) business week of the vacancy to Human Resources.

304.600 Term of Office - Members of the Elections Board shall serve until the conclusion of the following spring semester regardless of the date of their appointment and confirmation.
Compensation of Members of the Student Elections Board - The members of the Elections Board may be compensated if provided for in the Activity and Service (A & S) Fee budget for Student Government.

All Student Government employees are considered Temporary Student Employees and are bound by the University’s Regulations and policies governing both Temporary and Student Employees.

Duties of the Supervisor of Elections

Supervise Student Government Elections, chair the Elections Board and its meetings, and supervise the Elections Board members in accomplishing the requirements specified in this Chapter.

312.410  Full legal names must be used on the ballot, no nicknames or aliases may be used in place of a full legal name.
312.500 Names of candidates on ballots may be labeled by the Elections Board and SG Advisor to indicate ticket or party affiliation.

312.600 Candidates will only appear on ballots if they have properly filed all appropriate paperwork by publicized deadlines and have been verified by the Elections Board and the Student Government Advisors and are otherwise eligible to hold the office they seek.

312.700 A Sample Ballot will be posted after Fill-in candidates’ and regular candidates’ eligibility has been verified by the Student Governments Advisors and shall remain posted until the Friday before Election Days.

312.710 Any errors on the Sample Ballot from which the Online Ballot will be constructed must be reported in writing to the Chair of Elections by the Friday before Election Days and the Student Government Advisors will make corrections before the Online Ballot is constructed.

312.800 The Online Ballot will be constructed and posted on the Monday before Election Days and may not be changed or altered in any way preceding any election once constructed.

312.900 The Student Government Advisors will be responsible for providing the unofficial and official results of elections to the Supervisor of Elections, Student Body President (unless they are a candidate in the election), Senior Vice President for Student Affairs and his or her designee(s).

313.000 Online Polling Stations

313.100 Online polling stations will be available on Election Days on all four major campus groupings.

313.200 Locations and hours of availability will differ on each campus grouping.

313.210 This information will be publicized at least four (4) weeks before an election.

313.300 No campaigning or campaign material will be permitted within Online Polling Regions, the FAU computer labs, or any other University computing areas except for material voters may have legitimately received earlier that they choose to bring to the polls which they may do so and are expected to remove when they have completed voting.

314.000 Online Voting Procedures
The Supervisor of Elections will work with the Student Government Advisors and the Office of Information Technology (OIT) who will design and administer a web-based format for online voting.

The Elections Board shall not be held responsible for any technical errors with individual voters who were unable to vote due to technical and/or administrative errors with the online voting system.

Students who find themselves unable to vote due to technical and/or administrative errors with the online voting system should immediately contact the Student Government Advisors in writing to report this matter.

At the discretion of the SG Advisor a student with persistent technical difficulties will be given an alternate ballot.

Student campus designations will be determined by University Policy based on the Office of Registrar’s enrollment roster.

Online voting may take place on any computer connected to the Internet anywhere.

Voting shall be done in accordance with the guidelines for General Elections as provided for under Article VI of the Florida Atlantic University Student Government Constitution.

FAU full-time faculty and staff who have access to the ballot because they are also enrolled as a student either part of full-time are not permitted to vote due to a conflict of interest as their primary role at FAU is to provide instruction and administrative services to students.

Candidates and their campaign supporters may not be in the FAU computer labs on Election Days except to use the computers for legitimate non-campaign purposes or to vote themselves.

Candidates and their campaign supporters may direct students to Online Polling stations and on-campus computer labs but shall not stay in the labs or online polling stations and must remain outside of the designated Online Polling Regions.

Candidates and/or campaign supporters may not set up any polling station for students to vote.
314.610 This includes the prohibition of candidates and/or campaign supporters from physically providing mobile devices, tablets, laptops or computers to solicit votes from students.

314.620 This does not include candidates and/or campaign supporters from directing students to OwlCentral on Students' mobile devices, tablets, laptops, and/or computers in order to vote.

314.621 Candidates and/or campaign supporters may model the voting process on a personal mobile device, tablet, laptop, and/or computers.

314.800 No candidate or campaign supporter may serve as a poll worker, nor shall any poll worker endorse a candidate while working.

315.000 Campaigning

315.100 Campaigning on campus must comply with the Elections Statutes, Student Code of Conduct, University Regulations and Posting Policies for all University campuses and facilities.

315.200 All campaign materials, including candidate web sites, must be approved and on file with the Elections Board.

315.210 All campaign material in any format, including but not limited to non-FAU websites, t-shirts, stickers, flyers, posters, and banners, that indicates a voting method, place, format, location, and/or time must include the following clause: “If accommodation(s) for a disability is required contact “Person”/”Phone Number”/TTY 1-800-955-8770, please make notification when possible within five (5) working days in advance of the date of the event”.

315.211 Candidates must replace “Person” with their own name and “Phone Number” with either their own phone number or the Student Government office phone number.

315.300 Distribution of campaign materials is restricted to the following:

315.300(a) As per Housing policy, Housing facilities are restricted areas and candidates, tickets and parties may not distribute campaign materials in any housing facility at the University. This includes but is not limited to knocking on doors and soliciting for votes in the Housing Facilities or on its premises.
315.300(b) University Computer Labs, Libraries, Bookstores (not including the Boca Raton Breezeway itself), and floors of Student Unions that house Student Government offices (Boca Raton: 2nd floor, Davie: 2nd floor, Ft. Lauderdale Tower: 5th floor, and the entire Burrow on the Jupiter Campus are restricted areas and candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties may not distribute campaign materials in any such facility at the University.

315.300(b) (1) Student Unions contain Student Government offices and are operationally funded by Student Government. So as to not cause a conflict where it could appear that Student Government officers are endorsing candidates, tickets or parties, campaigning is restricted to non-SG floors, rooms, and spaces in these facilities. Libraries and Bookstores are off limits to campaigning per University policy. Computer labs are considered online polling locations and are therefore restricted from campaign activities and materials.

315.300(c) Campaign materials may be posted in Campus Recreation and Wellness facilities on approved bulletin boards only.

315.300(d) Candidates may post only one campaign item per bulletin board where permitted.

315.300(e) All printed campaign material approved by the Elections Board meant for bulletin boards, offices, and buildings must be stamped with approval by staff members of the offices of Student Involvement and Leadership on the respective campus.

315.300(f) Campaign materials may not be slid under doors of any buildings including but not limited to classrooms, residence halls, offices or businesses on-campus.

315.300(g) Candidates who wish to distribute or display material on or in a University building must first have secured the written permission of the Building Manager and shall submit such permission to the Elections Board and Student Involvement and Leadership offices.

315.300(g) (1) Candidates who wish to decorate the Breezeway or any other building or public surface, indoors or out, with campaign materials must consult with and receive prior written approval from the Student Union Administration Office and the Elections Commissioner before doing so.

315.300(h) Campaigning may not begin before adjournment of the Mandatory Candidacy Meetings.
315.300(j) Campaign materials may not be placed on or in vehicles on campus without the written consent of the vehicle’s owner.

315.300(j) No printed material larger than a poster shall be posted, placed or distributed anywhere on University property.

315.300(j)(1) This shall not prohibit a candidate or their campaign supporters from carrying signs approved by the Elections Board on their person provided they are not posted, placed, or attached to any University surface.

315.300(j)(2) This statute does not prohibit banners that are approved by the Elections Board and the Administration for the campus on which it is displayed.

315.300(k) No campaigning may take place and no campaign materials of any sort may be displayed or stored in Student Government offices, except the Elections Board Office which must store a record of campaign material submitted for approval for the purpose of conducting and monitoring a fair election process.

315.300(l) Candidates and their campaign supporters must remain twenty-five (25) feet away from any online polling location during an election, unless they are casting votes.

315.300(m) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties may not use any official FAU seal, logo, or mascot in any campaign materials, including but not limited to websites or third party advertisements.

315.300(n) Candidates, tickets and parties may not purchase any form of advertisement from FAU Student Media Outlets.

315.300(o) All campaign materials must be removed from buildings and campus property within seventy-two (72) hours after the conclusion of any election by the candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties themselves.

315.300(p) When conducting or attending meetings on or off campus as a Student Government official, working within Student Government offices or at Student Government sponsored events, activities or functions, or in any other way representing Student Government in a matter that pertains to their roles and responsibilities as a Student Government official, Student Government officers or programs may not endorse any candidate, ticket, or party.
315.300(p) (1) Leadership and members of registered student clubs and organizations, not including Student Government Programs, may endorse any candidate, ticket, or party as long as the leadership and members are not in violation of 314.300(p).

315.300(q) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties must abide by the Office of Information Technology (OIT) and University Communications and Media Relations policies regarding use of electronic media and communications in their campaign.

315.300(r) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties may not send unsolicited emails to FAU students via MyFAU or student’s FAU email.

315.300(s) Personal messaging sent via non-FAU related email addresses and messaging services on platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, Google+ and others may be used for campaign purposes by candidates and tickets without the preapproval of the Elections Board, so long as the nature of the communications abide with all Chapter 300 Elections Statutes in their entirety.

315.300(t) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties may not use official University websites for campaigning.

315.300(u) All campaign websites not run by the University must abide by the Chapter 300 Elections Statutes in their entirety.

315.300(u)(1) Personal websites including but not limited to Facebook, Twitter, Google+ and others may be used for campaigning provided the material posted on personal websites for the purpose of campaigning is preapproved by the Elections Board and complies with Chapter 300 Elections Statutes in their entirety.

315.300(v) Personal or free web sites shall not be considered as campaign expenses, however, candidates must provide evidence that use of the website is free.

315.300(w) The Elections Board shall have the responsibility for policing campaign web sites and electronic communications, however, such campaign materials must be preapproved by the Elections Board, except where otherwise stated in this chapter.
315.300(w) (1) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties have the responsibility of self-monitoring and reporting campaign violations to the Elections Board and SG Advisor and providing supporting documentation when they discover them.

315.300(w) (2) The Elections Board may hear and decide on any such cases brought up through the Election Complaint and Contestation process.

315.300(x) No campaign material may be produced using Student Government materials, supplies or equipment.

315.400(y) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties may not solicit endorsement from University faculty and staff regardless if such individuals are also enrolled in classes as this creates a conflict of interest.

316.000 Campaign Expense

316.100 Permissible campaign expenses include the purchase and/or construction of campaign materials such as t-shirts, flyers, posters, banners, promotional items, printing, etc.

316.110 Indirect campaign supplies (i.e.: staplers, tape, paint and brushes, etc.) are also considered campaign expenses.

316.120 Household items used in campaigns must also be documented and submitted to the Elections Board.

316.200 No student may use Activity and Service Fee funds (with the exception of monies collected by OPS wages) or materials purchased with Activity and Service Fees funds to campaign or support a campaign.

316.210 No student may use fundraising or other revenue funds collected on behalf of a registered student club or organization at FAU to campaign or support a campaign.

316.300 Campaign expenses for any and all regular and special elections are limited to the following amounts, including from donations:

316.310 Student Body President and Vice President Ticket – two-thousand ($2,000) dollars per ticket.
316.320  Gubernatorial Candidates – one-thousand ($1,000) dollars per candidate.

316.330  Senate Candidates – four-hundred ($400) dollars per candidate.

316.340  House of Representative Candidates – two-hundred ($200) dollars per candidate.

316.400  No candidate, ticket, or party may accept donations from any registered student club or organization or any Student Government Program funded by Activity and Service Fees.

316.410  This includes opportunities to campaign using Student Media Outlets. Student Media Outlets are required to make available and offer free and equal TV, radio, web, and hard print time and/or space for all candidates, tickets, and parties who choose to take advantage of such an opportunity.

316.500  If campaign contributions are to be solicited or accepted by a candidate, ticket or party, the following requirements must be met:

316.510  No candidates, ticket or party may accept donations from or provide sponsorship opportunities to any documented on-campus FAU vendor or contractor.

316.520  Contributions must not be solicited or accepted from any establishment defined as a “stand-alone bar” by Florida Statutes.

316.530  No business, organization, entity or individual may make any contribution through or in the name of another, directly or indirectly.

316.540  If a candidate, ticket or party has spent less than ninety-percent (90%) of their total campaign contributions by the end of the campaign period, the candidate will be assessed with a minor violation.

316.600  It is the responsibility of all candidates to inquire about expenses and services made by individuals or groups on their behalf.

316.610  Failure to account for any of the contributions on one’s Campaign Expense Report Form can be grounds for immediate disqualification of the candidate by the Elections Board.

316.700  Non-Student Media Outlet radio, television and newspaper advertisements shall not be considered a campaign expense if free and equal time is available for and offered to each candidate for a particular office. Evidence of such must be provided to the Elections Board and SG Advisor prior to such an opportunity being afforded.

316.800 A Campaign Expense Report Form shall be submitted by each and every candidate to the Supervisor of Elections via the Student Government Advisors no later than 12:00 p.m. on the day following an election and shall include:

316.810 An itemized list of all known campaign expenses.

316.820 All original itemized receipts for all documented campaign goods and services purchased.

316.830 A list of all campaign contributors and contributions including their full legal name, residence or business address, and amount and/or material and its fair market value contributed to the campaign.

316.840 In the event that a candidate incurs no expenses, he or she is still required to submit a Campaign Expense Report Form indicating so.

Campaign expense forms will be made public on OwlCentral by 5:00 PM on the day after an election so that students may freely view them and contest them if needed.

316.900 The Campaign Expense Report Form becomes public information upon submission.

317.000 Election Results

317.100 All Official Election Results must be verified by the SG Advisors with the cooperation of the Office of Information Technology (OIT) before posting.

317.110 FAU faculty and staff votes that are found in the election ballot report will be removed and not tallied with the student votes as part of the official results.

317.200 All Elections Results will be communicated to the Chair of Elections, Student Body President (unless they are a candidate in the election) and the Vice President for Student Affairs and his or her designee(s) immediately following the close of the polls, by the SG Advisors.

317.300 The Student Body President, Vice-President and Governor’s Office must be won by a plurality of those voting in the Student Body Election.
317.400 Senate and Campus House of Representatives seats may be won by most votes cast in an election.

317.410 The three (3) candidates with the most votes cast will win the three seats on their respective campus grouping for the Senate.

317.420 The candidates with the most votes cast will win all Campus House of Representative seats in declining order until all seats are filled.

317.430 On ballots where candidates for Senate and Campus House of Representative are fewer than vacant seats, all candidates who receive at least one vote will win a seat on their respective legislative body.

318.000 Elections Complaint and Contestation Process

318.100 Any University student has the right to contest an election or bring a complaint before the Elections Board alleging a violation of the Election Statutes.

318.200 The Elections Board must bring up an alleged violation against a student for violating Election Statutes, by citing the alleged violation and evidence in a Complaint and Contestation Form at any time during the election process.

318.300 The Complaint and Contestation Form must be copied to the SG Advisor and the student(s) notified of the allegation(s) within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt.

318.400 Hearings for allegations brought up by the Elections Board may not be held until the election concludes.

318.500 Complaints and contestations regarding the eligibility of candidates based on the minimum requirements set forth in FAU University Regulation 4.006 are outside of the jurisdiction of the Elections Board and must be directed to the SG Advisor for further action.

318.600 All Election Complaint and Contestation Forms must be submitted to the Student Government Advisors no later than twelve (12) p.m. on the day after voting closes who will then immediately forward it to the Supervisor of Elections.

318.610 Complaint and Contestation forms must always be submitted with all evidence of an alleged violation or damages incurred available at the time and the full name and contact information for all witnesses known at the time of submission.
Upon receipt of a complaint or contestation, the Elections Board will meet the following Monday to adjudicate all complaints and contestations and to certify the final results of the election at the next Elections Board meeting.

A public notice must be posted by the Supervisor of Elections forty-eight (48) hours prior to the elections board hearing.

The student who filed the complaint or contestation, as well as the student it was filed against, may at the discretion of the Supervisor of Elections address the Elections Board. Any and all involved parties, who may be present, may also address the Elections Board with the permission of the Supervisor of Elections.

During the Hearing, the Elections Board will follow the same practices and procedures outlined in Chapter 613.440, regarding the Student Court Hearing process, although they may modify this process as needed to facilitate a fair and equal Elections Board Hearing, at their discretion.

The student may withdraw the complaint or contestation prior to the Elections Board taking action; however, the Elections Board may proceed with its investigation and hearing of the complaint or contestation.

The Elections Board, upon finding a candidate or ticket responsible for committing a violation of the Elections Statutes will decide the sanction for the violation.

Notification of the decision of the Elections Board shall be presented to the candidate/ticket no later than twenty-four (24) hours after the decision is made.

Sanctions and Violations

Sanctions for major violations of the Elections Statutes include:

- Disqualification from the election
- Removal of votes, which may or may not affect the outcome of an election, but only in cases where there is concrete, documented evidence of voter fraud with an exact number of defrauded votes found.

If election results were affected by a violation of a candidate and/or party then the Elections Board may call for a new election, but only if the newly tabulated results, after a sanction is imposed, is a 50/50 tie.

319.200 Sanctions for one, or multiple, minor violation(s) of the Elections Statutes include:

319.210 A reprimand in the form of a written warning kept on file

319.211 Such written warnings will be recorded on a standardized form, which contains pertinent background information regarding the specific case, violation and candidate information.

319.212 A copy of the written warning shall be provided to the SG Advisor, the Elections Board and the Student Court.

319.213 An electronic copy of the written warning will be permanently stored on file by the Chief Justice, who will also be responsible for maintaining and updating a searchable database containing the warnings.

318.214 Previous written warnings against a candidate shall be brought forward as a determining factor in any future Elections Board or Student Court Hearings in any future elections involving the candidate in question.

319.300 Major violations include, but are not limited to:

319.300(a) Not attending a Mandatory Candidacy Meeting without making it up.
319.300(b) Exceeding allotted amounts in campaign expense.
319.300(c) Failing to report one or more campaign expenses.
319.300(d) Falsifying the Campaign Expense Report Form.
319.300(e) Attempting to qualify for candidacy under an assumed name.
319.300(f) Attempting or successful fraud in the voting process.
319.300(g) Intentional destruction of personal, private, or University property.
319.300(h) Intentional defacing of any surface of FAU or private property without permission.
319.300(i) Verbal or physical abuse or harassment of FAU students, faculty and/or administration.

319.300(j) Campaigning prior to the designated Campaign Period.

319.300(k) Any campaign or advertisement material that is/was proven to be untrue or injurious to another.

319.300(l) Sending unsolicited emails to FAU students via MyFAU or student’s FAU email account.

319.300(m) The use of official University websites for campaigning purposes.

319.300(n) The combination of any three (3) minor violations.

319.300(o) Violation of the section 321.000 of this Chapter, Elections Code of Ethics.

319.300(p) Hosting a party event not registered with the Student Union and not approved by the Supervisor of Elections.

319.400 Minor violations include, but are not limited to:

319.410 Campaign within twenty-five (25) feet of online polling stations on all campuses.

319.411 Mechanical amplification for the purpose of campaigning cannot be heard within twenty-five (25) feet of online polling stations.

319.420 Use of staff, services, materials, supplies or equipment funded by Activity and Service Fee funds for campaigning with the exception of Student Media outlets who may offer election coverage available and accessible to all candidates free of charge.

319.430 Any violation of the Posting Policy

319.431 An additional minor violation will be assessed if candidates do not properly follow statutes 315.210 and 315.211 in their entirety.

319.431(a) The purpose of this statute is to stress the importance of total inclusion of the diverse student body at Florida Atlantic University.
319.440 Any other violation of University Regulations or policies, or local, state or federal law.

319.450 Failure to spend at least ninety-percent (90%) of total campaign contributions received by the end of the campaign period.

319.500 If not listed above, the Elections Board reserves the right to classify a violation as either major or minor at their discretion.

320.000 Special Elections

320.100 In the event of the invalidation of an election, the Elections Chair must call a special election within three weeks or before the end of the semester, whichever comes first.

320.200 All Special Elections shall follow the same procedures as those for regular elections.

320.300 There shall be no Fill-in candidates/tickets for Special Elections.

321.000 Elections Code of Ethics

321.100 This Code of Ethics applies to all candidates and/or parties for Student Government elective office and all persons associated with a candidate or ticket’s campaign.

321.200 No candidate, ticket, party or individual shall misrepresent any material fact(s) regarding themselves or others through any campaign material(s) or while campaigning.

321.300 Any candidate or campaign member suspected of lying or being less than truthful while testifying before the Elections Board during an Elections Board Hearing shall be subject to review by the Student Court with a recommendation of disqualification of the candidate.

321.400 No candidate, ticket or individual shall commit or attempt a bribe.

321.500 No candidate shall alter his or her legal name provided to the Elections Board for placement on a ballot.

321.600 No candidate shall participate in, condone or authorize the defacement, destruction or theft of another candidate’s campaign material.
321.700 No candidate shall publish either by verbal, written, printed or electronic material anything which is known to be false and/or directly or by inference threatens to accuse another of any crime or offense, or which is designed to injure the person, property, or reputation of another, or threatens to expose another to disgrace, or threatens to deny or terminate the membership of another in any campus organization without proper evidence of accusatory remarks.

321.800 A candidate is reasonably responsible for the actions of other individuals and organizations supporting him or her, and may be subject to review by the Elections Board for these actions.

321.900 Aggressive, hostile, violent or disruptive confrontation between candidates, tickets and parties will not be tolerated.

322.000 Constitutional Referenda

322.100 Constitutional referenda shall occur in accordance to Article IX of the Student Government Constitution.

323.000 General Referenda

323.100 General referenda are questions placed on the ballots during General Elections for the Student Body to vote on as legislated by the Student Senate, relevant Campus House, or student petition.

323.200 General referenda items pertaining to university-wide matters shall require a 3/4 vote of the Student Senate in order to be placed on the next regularly occurring spring election ballot.

323.210 Such referenda items must be voted on and approved by the Student Senate at least thirty (30) day prior to the election referenced above in order to appear on the ballot.

323.220 Such referenda items may also appear on the ballot if three (3) percent of the University wide student body signs a petition in support of the referenda item.

323.300 General referenda items pertaining to a campus-based matter shall require a 3/4 vote of the House of Representatives on the campus in question in order to be placed on the next regularly occurring Spring election ballot.

323.310 Such referenda items must be voted on and approved by the Student Senate at least thirty-days (30) prior to the election referenced above in order to appear on the ballot.
323.320 Such referenda items may also appear on the ballot if three (3) percent of the campus wide student body signs a petition in support of the referenda.

324.000 Election Contingency Plan

324.100 In case of a campus emergency such as a natural disaster, threats of natural disaster, acts of God, or other such threats to the safety and security of FAU students which may impede the voting process, the Student Body President may, upon agreement with the Supervisor of Elections and the Student Government Advisors, suspend and reschedule an election and revise the election timeline.

324.200 In the case of catastrophic technical or elections process failure, the Student Body President, may upon agreement with the Supervisor of Elections and the Student Government Advisors, call a new election and any voter results of the disrupted election will be invalidated.

325.000 Supplement to the Elections Statutes

325.100 The Elections Board and/or Student Court may adopt or look to any part of the election laws of the State of Florida, or to the common law, not in conflict with the Student Body Constitution, Student Body Statutes or FAU University Regulations to ensure fair and impartial elections and in interpreting these Chapter 300 Elections Statutes.

Enacted Month October 2007, Revised April 2017 (SOO).
