The Student Union Art Gallery functions as an integral part of the Florida Atlantic University community. Since 2006 the galleries have served the community by exposing students and employees of Florida Atlantic University and off campus visitors to original art by regional and national artists.

The Student Union building is one of the busiest buildings on campus. The Student Union Art Gallery provides traditional and alternative spaces to exhibit art with high exposure.

The Gallery Curator and the Exhibitions Committee choose exhibitions based on proposals submitted by Students, Faculty and Alumni of FAU. Proposals for exhibitions are accepted on an ongoing basis throughout the academic year.
