Please explain the requested change(s) and offer rationale below or on an attachment The Department of Languages, Linguistics, and Comparative Literature has offered the German minor for several decades. We are now updating our German minor by offering a fully online version which parallels the traditional face-to-face modality. The number of courses, distribution/category of courses, and overall credits required for the minor will remain the same for each modality of the German minor: 5 classes (15-18 credits) at the elementary and intermediate level. Attached please find the updated course catalog language to accompany this transmittal form.

German Minor (online)

To complete a minor in German, students are required to pass (with a grade of "C" or better) two beginning-level language courses (GER 1120 and GER 1121), and three intermediate-level language courses (GER 2220, GER 2221, ~~GEW 2104~~ and GER 2225). ~~German Literature in Translation (GET 3130)~~

Students with advanced knowledge of spoken and/or written German (including heritage learners) must contact the LLCL advisor to establish a list of five courses for completing the minor.

Students who plan to study abroad are strongly encouraged to have all courses approved through the LLCL advisor before beginning the program.
