Chapter 300. Elections Statutes

300.000 Authority

300.100 The Elections Board shall be in charge of all Student Government elections, including General, Special and Run-off Elections, including referendum elections and Constitutional amendment questions that are set forth in this document, and is established for that purpose by the Student Government Constitution and Statutes.

300.200 The Chair of Elections shall serve as the chairperson of the Elections Board and shall faithfully execute those duties and responsibilities designated by the Student Government Constitution and this Chapter of the Student Body Statutes to conduct proper elections by the Elections Board.

301.000 Purpose

301.100 The purpose of this chapter is to define and outline the structure and operation of elections within Student Government.

302.000 Definitions

302.100(a) Ballot - The official medium used by which a vote is recorded.

302.100(b) Bribe - A prize, reward, gift or favor given or promised with the intent to influence another vote for a particular candidate, ticket or party.

302.100(b)(1) Any campaign materials approved by the Election Board and given during the official campaign period shall not constitute as a bribe or bribery.

302.100(c) Campaign Expense - The fair market value of any goods or services paid for or received by a candidate or ticket’s campaign.

302.100(d) Campaign Materials, Authorized - Any items approved by the Elections Board, which contribute to a candidate or ticket’s campaign, including electronic media.

302.100(e) Campaigning - All publicizing and/or distribution of campaign materials (i.e.: apparel, flyers, handbills, food, websites, etc.) or verbal communication that solicits or calls for support of a candidate or ticket for an elected office of Student Government.
The wearing of campaign apparel (t-shirts, hats, buttons, etc.) by anyone other than the candidates themselves does not constitute campaigning, unless such behavior is accompanied by some other action, such as the verbal endorsement or discussion of a candidate or ticket or the promotion or distribution of campaign materials.

Contribution - Any service, goods, or sum of money donated to a candidate with the intent of promoting or aiding the candidate in his or her campaign.

Declaration of Candidacy - The process whereby a student declares intent to campaign for office and be placed on an election ballot.

Direct Written Notice - Paper or electronic (FAU e-mail, or fax) notice.

Due Process - A fundamental, constitutional guarantee that all official proceedings will be fair and that a student will be given notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard before the Elections Board and/or the Student Court.

Election Period - The time period beginning the day Declarations of Candidacy begin and ending on the date that official results have been publicized and there are no outstanding complaints, contestations, hearings or appeals, including run-off elections if applicable.

For special elections, the end of the election period will be the date that official results are publicized and there are no outstanding complaints, contestations, hearings or appeals.

Endorse – The act of declaring one’s public approval or support of a candidate, ticket or party.

Fill-in Candidacy - The process whereby a student declares intent to be placed on an election ballot just before an election is held thereby waiving their right to participate in the full length of the campaigning period.

General Election - Elections held once (1) during both fall and spring semesters for the purpose of determining which candidates will assume all Student Government elective offices.

General Election ballots may include referendums and Constitutional Amendment questions.

Itemized List - A document containing individual campaign expenses, each separately identified, along with all required financial information associated with such expense.
302.100(o) Major Violation - Any violation affecting the outcome of an election, including but not limited to those listed in 319.300.

302.100(o)(1) For sanctioning purposes, the combination of any three (3) minor violations must be considered as one (1) major violation.

302.100(p) Minor Violation - Any violation not affecting the outcome of an election, including but not limited to those listed in 319.400.

302.100(q) Official Results - The official posting of the final election results, as certified by Student Government Advisors and the Elections Board, after all appeals and contestations have been exhausted.

302.100(r) Online Polling Stations:

302.100(r)(1) A designated and posted area set up by the Elections Board or Student Government Advisors containing computing stations for online voting.

302.100(r)(2) Any public computer lab located anywhere on any FAU campus.

302.100(s) Online Polling Region - A twenty-five (25) foot radius surrounding designated Online Polling Stations and general use computing labs on all FAU campuses.

302.100(t) Political Party - A group of candidates, who may or may not be associated with a ticket, cooperatively campaigning together for elected offices.

302.100(u) Poll - A survey put to the Student Body on any ballot administered by the Elections Board not carrying the weight of legislation.

302.100(v) Posters - Any printed 2-dimensional campaign material not to exceed 22 inches by 25 inches in dimension for the purpose of limiting poster size used for campaigning thereby creating greater equity in the campaign process.

302.100(v)(1) These limitations do not apply to digital signage.

302.100(w) Public Notice - Any written notice published on the SG website, MyFAU, in SG offices or sent via e-mail.

302.100(x) Recall - The dismissal from office of an elected official by a popular vote.

302.100(y) Referendum - Any question put before the Student Body for a vote.

302.100(z) Special Election - Any election other than a General Election where the ballot may contain candidates for elected office.

302.100(z)(1) Special Election ballots may not include referendums and Constitutional Amendments.
302.100(aa) Sponsor - A business, organization, entity or individual that provides a candidate or ticket with a cash and/or in-kind fee in return for an advertising or promotional opportunity of some form.

302.100(bb) Ticket - Two (2) candidates cooperatively engaged in a campaign for Student Body President and Vice-President.

302.100(cc) Third Party Advertising - Solicited or unsolicited support for a candidate or ticket by an organization or individual other than the candidate or ticket themselves.

302.100(dd) Unofficial Results - The posting of the election results by Student Government Advisors and the Elections Board prior to any appeals and/or contestations.

303.000 Election Funding

303.100 Sufficient funds shall be available for the election process from the Student Government Activity and Service Fee Budget in the SG Elections account.

304.000 Elections Board

304.100 Composition of the Elections Board. The Elections Board shall consist of at least five (5) FAU students, at least one (1) student from each of three (3) campus groupings: Boca Raton, Broward, Northern Campuses, and an Elections Marketing Director, led by the Chair of Elections.

304.110 The Chair of Elections may create any unpaid, volunteer position, that he or she deems necessary and proper provided that the Student Senate is notified of the action in writing.

304.120 Any unpaid, volunteer positions created by the Chair of Elections will not be considered part of the Elections Board.

304.130 The Elections board will play an active monitoring role during the campaign period and on the days of the election.

304.200 Selection of the Members of the Elections Board

304.210 The Chair of Elections shall be selected through an appointment process initiated by the Student Body President within thirty (30) business days after the inauguration of the Student Body President and confirmed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Student Senate.

304.220 The three (3) campus based Elections Board Commissioners shall be selected through an application process by the Chair of Elections within sixty (60) business days after the Chair’s confirmation by the Student Senate.
304.230 Each Elections Board Commissioner and the Elections Marketing Director must be confirmed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Student Senate.

304.240 All Elections Board positions are open to any member of the FAU student body.

304.250 Each and every member of the Elections Board must meet and maintain the minimum qualifications for eligibility as stated in University Regulation 4.006.

304.300 Neutrality of the Elections Board

304.310 No member of the Elections Board may endorse or campaign for any candidate or ticket for an elected position in Student Government, nor shall they act in any partisan manner while they are serving as members of the Elections Board.

304.320 No member of the Elections Board may hold or be a candidate for an elected or appointed position elsewhere within Student Government during their term on the Elections Board.

304.400 Resignation or Removal of Members of the Elections Board

304.410 Failure to attend three consecutive meetings of the Elections Board without prior notification to the Chair of Elections shall constitute an automatic removal from the Elections Board.

304.420 In the event of a student complaint, including from a member of Student Government, against a member of the Elections Board, including the Chair of Elections, to the Student Court via the SG Advisor, the Student Court shall meet and determine if an Elections Board member may have violated the Elections Statutes.

304.421 If the Student Court decides that an Elections Board member may have committed a violation of the Elections Statutes, it shall follow procedures for such hearings as detailed in Chapter 600.

304.430 At the recommendation of the Student Court, the Student Body President may remove any member of the Elections Board with the concurrence of a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Student Senate.

304.440 An Elections Board member who is removed from office may appeal to the Student Court via the SG Advisor.
Appeals of Student Court decisions should be directed to the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Vacancy of an Elections Board Member - Filling a vacancy due to the untimely removal or resignation of an Elections Board member, including Chair of Elections, shall follow the selection and confirmation process stated in Chapter 304.200 as needed.

Chair of Elections Board Vacancy - If the Chair of Elections position is vacant within one (1) month of the Elections period or during an Elections Period, the Elections Commissioner of the largest campus grouping will be appointed as the temporary Chair of Elections by the Student Body President.

The temporary appointment of an Interim Chair of Elections must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Student Senate.

The Student Body President must post the Chair of Elections vacancy within twenty-four (24) hours.

Members of the Elections Board shall serve until the conclusion of the following spring semester regardless of the date of their appointment and confirmation.

The members of the Elections Board may be compensated if provided for in the Activity and Service (A & S) Fee budget for Student Government.

All Student Government employees are considered Temporary Student Employees and are bound by the University’s Regulations and policies governing both Temporary and Student Employees.

313.210 This information will be publicized at least four (4) weeks before an election.

313.300 No campaigning or campaign material will be permitted within Online Polling Regions, the FAU computer labs, or any other University computing areas except for material voters may have legitimately received earlier that they choose to bring to the polls which they may do so and are expected to remove when they have completed voting.

314.000 Online Voting Procedures

314.100 The Chair of Elections will work with the SG Advisor and the Office of Information Technology (OIT) who will design and administer a web-based format for online voting.

314.110 The Elections Board shall not be held responsible for any technical errors with individual voters who were unable to vote due to technical and/or administrative errors with the online voting system.
Students who find themselves unable to vote due to technical and/or administrative errors with the online voting system should immediately contact the SG Advisor in writing to report this matter.

At the discretion of the SG Advisor a student with persistent technical difficulties will be given an alternate ballot.

Student campus designations will be determined by University Policy based on the Office of Registrar’s enrollment roster.

Online voting may take place on any computer connected to the Internet anywhere.

Online voting shall start on Monday at 12:00 p.m. and close 96 hours later (Friday of the same week) effective Spring 2015.

FAU full-time faculty and staff who have access to the ballot because they are also enrolled as a student either part of full-time are not permitted to vote due to a conflict of interest as their primary role at FAU is to provide instruction and administrative services to students.

Candidates and their campaign supporters may not be in the FAU computer labs on Election Days except to use the computers for legitimate non-campaign purposes or to vote themselves.

Candidates and their campaign supporters may direct students to Online Polling stations and on-campus computer labs but shall not stay in the labs or online polling stations and must remain outside of the designated Online Polling Regions.

Candidates and/or campaign supporters may not set up any polling station for students to vote.

This includes the prohibition of candidates and/or campaign supporters from physically providing mobile devices, tablets, laptops or computers to solicit votes from students.

No candidate or campaign supporter may serve as a poll worker, nor shall any poll worker endorse a candidate while working.

Campaigning on campus must comply with the Elections Statutes, Student Code of Conduct, University Regulations and Posting Policies for all University campuses and facilities.
All campaign materials, including candidate web sites, must be approved and on file with the Elections Board.

All campaign material in any format, including but not limited to non-FAU websites, t-shirts, stickers, flyers, posters, and banners, that indicates a voting method, place, format, location, and/or time must include the following clause: “If accommodation(s) for a disability is required contact “Person”/“Phone Number”/TTY 1-800-955-8770, a minimum of five (5) working days in advance of the date of the event”.

Candidates must replace “Person” with their own name and “Phone Number” with either their own phone number or the Student Government office phone number.

Distribution of campaign materials is restricted to the following:

- As per Housing policy, Housing facilities are restricted areas and candidates, tickets and parties may not distribute campaign materials in any housing facility at the University. This includes but is not limited to knocking on doors and soliciting for votes in the Housing Facilities or on its premises.

- University Computer Labs, Libraries, Bookstores (not including the Boca Raton Breezeway itself), and floors of Student Unions that house Student Government offices (Boca Raton: 2nd floor, Davie: 2nd floor, Ft. Lauderdale Tower: 5th floor, and the entire Burrow on the Jupiter Campus are restricted areas and candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties may not distribute campaign materials in any such facility at the University.

- Student Unions contain Student Government offices and are operationally funded by Student Government. So as to not cause a conflict where it could appear that Student Government officers are endorsing candidates, tickets or parties, campaigning is restricted to non-SG floors, rooms, and spaces in these facilities. Libraries and Bookstores are off limits to campaigning per University policy. Computer labs are considered online polling locations and are therefore restricted from campaign activities and materials.

- Campaign materials may be posted in Campus Recreation and Wellness facilities on approved bulletin boards only.

- Candidates may post only one campaign item per bulletin board where permitted.
315.300(e) All printed campaign material approved by the Elections Board meant for bulletin boards, offices, and buildings must be stamped with approval by staff members of the offices of Student Involvement and Leadership on the respective campus.

315.300(f) Campaign materials may not be slid under doors of any buildings including but not limited to classrooms, residence halls, offices or businesses on-campus.

315.300(g) Candidates who wish to distribute or display material on or in a University building must first have secured the written permission of the Building Manager and shall submit such permission to the Elections Board and Student Involvement and Leadership offices.

315.300(g)(1) Candidates who wish to decorate the Breezeway or any other building or public surface, indoors or out, with campaign materials must consult with and receive prior written approval from the Student Union Administration Office and the Elections Commissioner before doing so.

315.300(h) Campaigning may not begin before adjournment of the Mandatory Candidacy Meetings.

315.300(j) Campaign materials may not be placed on or in vehicles on campus without the written consent of the vehicle’s owner.

315.300(j)(1) This shall not prohibit a candidate or their campaign supporters from carrying signs approved by the Elections Board on their person provided they are not posted, placed, or attached to any University surface.

315.300(k) No campaigning may take place and no campaign materials of any sort may be displayed or stored in Student Government offices, except the Elections Board Office which must store a record of campaign material submitted for approval for the purpose of conducting and monitoring a fair election process.

315.300(l) Candidates and their campaign supporters must remain twenty-five (25) feet away from any online polling location during an election, unless they are casting votes.
315.300(m) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties may not use any official FAU seal, logo, or mascot in any campaign materials, including but not limited to websites or third party advertisements.

315.300(n) Candidates, tickets and parties may not purchase any form of advertisement from FAU Student Media Outlets.

315.300(o) All campaign materials must be removed from buildings and campus property within seventy-two (72) hours after the conclusion of any election by the candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties themselves.

315.300(p) When conducting or attending meetings on or off campus as a Student Government official, working within Student Government offices or at Student Government sponsored events, activities or functions, or in any other way representing Student Government in a matter that pertains to their roles and responsibilities as a Student Government official, Student Government officers or programs may not endorse any candidate, ticket, or party.

315.300(p)(1) Leadership and members of registered student clubs and organizations, not including Student Government Programs, may endorse any candidate, ticket, or party as long as the leadership and members are not in violation of 314.300.p.

315.300(q) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties must abide by the Office of Information Technology (OIT) and University Communications and Media Relations policies regarding use of electronic media and communications in their campaign.

315.300(r) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties may not send unsolicited emails to FAU students via MyFAU or student’s FAU email.

315.300(s) Personal messaging sent via non-FAU related email addresses and messaging services on platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, Google+ and others may be used for campaign purposes by candidates and tickets without the preapproval of the Elections Board, so long as the nature of the communications abide with all Chapter 300 Elections Statutes in their entirety.

315.300(t) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties may not use official University websites for campaigning.

315.300(u) All campaign websites not run by the University must abide by the Chapter 300 Elections Statutes in their entirety.
315.300(u)(1) Personal websites including but not limited to Facebook, Twitter, Google+ and others may be used for campaigning provided the material posted on personal websites for the purpose of campaigning is preapproved by the Elections Board and complies with Chapter 300 Elections Statutes in their entirety.

315.300(v) Personal or free web sites shall not be considered as campaign expenses, however, candidates must provide evidence that use of the website is free.

315.300(w) The Elections Board shall have the responsibility for policing campaign web sites and electronic communications, however, such campaign materials must be preapproved by the Elections Board, except where otherwise stated in this chapter.

315.300(w)(1) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties have the responsibility of self-monitoring and reporting campaign violations to the Elections Board and SG Advisor and providing supporting documentation when they discover them.

315.300(w)(2) The Elections Board may hear and decide on any such cases brought up through the Election Complaint and Contestation process.

315.300(x) No campaign material may be produced using Student Government materials, supplies or equipment.

315.400(y) Candidates, campaign supporters, tickets, and parties may not solicit endorsement from University faculty and staff regardless if such individuals are also enrolled in classes as this creates a conflict of interest.

316.000 Campaign Expense

316.100 Permissible campaign expenses include the purchase and/or construction of campaign materials such as t-shirts, flyers, posters, banners, promotional items, printing, etc.

316.100(a) Indirect campaign supplies (i.e.: staplers, tape, paint and brushes, etc.) are also considered campaign expenses.

316.100(b) Household items used in campaigns must also be documented and submitted to the Elections Board.
No student may use Activity and Service Fee funds (with the exception of monies collected by OPS wages) or materials purchased with Activity and Service Fees funds to campaign or support a campaign.

No student may use fundraising or other revenue funds collected on behalf of a registered student club or organization at FAU to campaign or support a campaign.

Campaign expenses for any and all regular and special elections are limited to the following amounts, including from donations:

- 316.300(a) Student Body President and Vice President Ticket – two-thousand ($2,000) dollars per ticket.
- 316.300(b) Gubernatorial Candidates – one-thousand ($1,000) dollars per candidate.
- 316.300(c) Senate Candidates – four-hundred ($400) dollars per candidate.
- 316.300(d) House of Representative Candidates – two-hundred ($200) dollars per candidate.

No candidate, ticket, or party may accept donations from any registered student club or organization or any Student Government Program funded by Activity and Service Fees.

This includes opportunities to campaign using Student Media Outlets. Student Media Outlets are required to make available and offer free and equal TV, radio, web, and hard print time and/or space for all candidates, tickets, and parties who choose to take advantage of such an opportunity.

If campaign contributions are to be solicited or accepted by a candidate, ticket or party, the following requirements must be met:

- 316.500(a) No candidates, ticket or party may accept donations from or provide sponsorship opportunities to any documented on-campus FAU vendor or contractor.
- 316.500(b) Contributions must not be solicited or accepted from any establishment defined as a “stand-alone bar” by Florida Statutes.
- 316.500(c) No business, organization, entity or individual may make any contribution through or in the name of another, directly or indirectly.
- 316.500(d) If a candidate, ticket or party has spent less than ninety-percent (90%) of their total campaign contributions by the end of the campaign period, the candidate will be assessed with a minor violation.

316.600 It is the responsibility of all candidates to inquire about expenses and services made by individuals or groups on their behalf.

316.100(a) Failure to account for any of the contributions on one’s Campaign Expense Report Form can be grounds for immediate disqualification of the candidate by the Elections Board.

316.700 Non-Student Media Outlet radio, television and newspaper advertisements shall not be considered a campaign expense if free and equal time is available for and offered to each candidate for a particular office. Evidence of such must be provided to the Elections Board and SG Advisor prior to such an opportunity being afforded.

316.800 A Campaign Expense Report Form shall be submitted by each and every candidate to the Chair of Elections via the SG Advisor no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day following an election and shall include:

316.800(a) An itemized list of all known campaign expenses.

316.800(b) All original itemized receipts for all documented campaign goods and services purchased.

316.800(c) A list of all campaign contributors and contributions including their full legal name, residence or business address, and amount and/or material and its fair market value contributed to the campaign.

316.800(e) In the event that a candidate incurs no expenses, he or she is still required to submit a Campaign Expense Report Form indicating so.

316.900 The Campaign Expense Report Form becomes public information upon submission.

317.000 Election Results

317.100 All Official Election Results must be verified by the SG Advisors with the cooperation of the Office of Information Technology (OIT) before posting.

317.110 FAU faculty and staff votes that are found in the election ballot report will be removed and not tallied with the student votes as part of the official results.

317.200 All Elections Results will be communicated to the Chair of Elections, Student Body President (unless they are a candidate in the election) and the Vice President for Student Affairs and his or her designee(s) immediately following the close of the polls, by the SG Advisors.
The Student Body President, Vice-President and Governors Office must be won by a plurality of those voting in the Student Body Election.

Senate and Campus House of Representatives seats may be won by most votes cast in an election.

The three (3) candidates with the most votes cast will win the three seats on their respective campus grouping for the Senate.

The candidates with the most votes cast will win all Campus House of Representative seats in declining order until all seats are filled.

On ballots where candidates for Senate and Campus House of Representative are fewer than vacant seats, all candidates who receive at least one vote will win a seat on their respective legislative body.

Elections Complaint and Contestation Process

Any University student has the right to contest an election or bring a complaint before the Elections Board alleging a violation of the Election Statutes.

The Elections Board must bring up an alleged violation against a student for violating Election Statutes, by citing the alleged violation and evidence in a Complaint and Contestation Form at any time during the election process.

The Complaint and Contestation Form must be copied to the SG Advisor and the alleged student(s) notified of the allegation(s) within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt.

Hearings for allegations brought up by the Elections Board may not be held until the election concludes.

Complaints and contestations regarding the eligibility of candidates based on the minimum requirements set forth in FAU University Regulation 4.006 are outside of the jurisdiction of the Elections Board and must be directed to the SG Advisor for further action.

All Election Complaint and Contestation Forms must be submitted to the SG Advisor no later than twelve (12) p.m. on the Friday that the voting closes who will then immediately forward it to the Chair of Elections.

Complaint and Contestation forms must always be submitted with all evidence of an alleged violation or damages incurred available at the time and the full name and contact information for all witnesses known at the time of submission.
Upon receipt of a complaint or contestation, the Elections Board will meet the following Monday to adjudicate all complaints and contestations and to certify the final results of the election.

A public notice must be posted by the Elections Chair forty eight (48) hours prior to the elections board hearing.

The student who filed the complaint or contestation, as well as the student it was filed against, may at the discretion of the Elections Chair address the Elections Board. Any and all involved parties, who may be present, may also address the Elections Board with the permission of the Elections Chair.

During the Hearing, the Elections Board will follow the same practices and procedures outlined in Chapter 613.440, regarding the Student Court Hearing process, although they may modify this process as needed to facilitate a fair and equal Elections Board Hearing, at their discretion.

The student may withdraw the complaint or contestation prior to the Elections Board taking action; however, the Elections Board may proceed with its investigation and hearing of the complaint or contestation.

The Elections Board, upon finding a candidate or ticket responsible for committing a violation of the Elections Statutes will decide the sanction for the violation.

Notification of the decision of the Elections Board shall be presented to the candidate/ticket no later than twenty-four (24) hours after the decision is made.

Sanctions and Violations

Sanctions for major violations of the Elections Statutes include:

- Disqualification from the election
- Removal of votes, which may or may not affect the outcome of an election, but only in cases where there is concrete, documented evidence of voter fraud with an exact number of defrauded votes found.
- If election results were affected by a violation of a candidate and/or party then the Elections Board may call for a new election, but only if the newly tabulated results, after a sanction is imposed, is a 50/50 tie.

Sanctions for minor violations of the Elections Statutes include:
319.210 A reprimand in the form of a written warning kept on file

319.211 Such written warnings will be recorded on a standardized form, which contains pertinent background information regarding the specific case, violation and candidate information.

319.212 A copy of the written warning shall be provided to the SG Advisor, the Elections Board and the Student Court.

319.213 An electronic copy of the written warning will be permanently stored on file by the Chief Justice, who will also be responsible for maintaining and updating a searchable database containing the warnings.

318.214 Previous written warnings against a candidate shall be brought forward as a determining factor in any future Elections Board or Student Court Hearings in any future elections involving the candidate in question.

319.300 Major violations include, but are not limited to:

319.300(a) Not attending a Mandatory Candidacy Meeting without making it up.
319.300(b) Exceeding allotted amounts in campaign expense
319.300(c) Failing to report one or more campaign expenses
319.300(d) Falsifying the Campaign Expense Report Form
319.300(e) Attempting to qualify for candidacy under an assumed name
319.300(f) Attempting or successful fraud in the voting process
319.300(g) Intentional destruction of personal, private, or University property
319.300(h) Intentional defacing of any surface of FAU or private property without permission
319.300(i) Verbal or physical abuse or harassment of FAU students, faculty and/or administration
319.300(j) Campaigning prior to the designated Campaign Period
319.300(k) Any campaign or advertisement material that is/was proven to be untrue or injurious to another
319.300(l) Sending unsolicited emails to FAU students via MyFAU or student’s FAU email account
319.300(m) The use of official University websites for campaigning purposes
319.300(n) The combination of any three (3) minor violations
319.300(o) Violation of the section 321.000 Elections Code of Ethics.
319.300(p) Hosting a party event not registered with the Student Union and not approved by the Chair of Elections.

319.400 Minor violations include, but are not limited to:
319.400(a) Campaigning within twenty-five (25) feet of online polling stations on all campuses
318.400(a)(1) Mechanical amplification for the purpose of campaigning within twenty-five (25) feet of online polling stations
319.400(b) Use of staff, services, materials, supplies or equipment funded by Activity and Service Fee funds for campaigning with the exception of Student Media outlets who may offer election coverage available and accessible to all candidates free of charge
319.400(c) Any violations of the Posting Policy
319.400(d) Any other violation of University Regulations or policies, or local, state or federal law
319.400(e) Failure to spend at least ninety-percent (90%) of total campaign contributions received by the end of the campaign period.

319.500 If not listed above, the Elections Board reserves the right to classify a violation as either major or minor at their discretion.

320.000 Special Elections
320.100 In the event of the invalidation of an election, the Elections Chair must call a special election within three weeks or before the end of the semester, whichever comes first.
320.200 All Special Elections shall follow the same procedures as those for regular elections.
320.300 There shall be no Fill-in candidates/tickets for Special Elections.

321.000 Elections Code of Ethics
321.100 This Code of Ethics applies to all candidates and/or parties for Student Government elective office and all persons associated with a candidate or ticket’s campaign.

321.200 No candidate, ticket, party or individual shall misrepresent any material fact(s) regarding themselves or others through any campaign material(s) or while campaigning.

321.300 Any candidate or campaign member suspected of lying or being less than truthful while testifying before the Elections Board during an Elections Board Hearing shall be subject to review by the Student Court with a recommendation of disqualification of the candidate.

321.400 No candidate, ticket or individual shall commit or attempt a bribe.

321.500 No candidate shall alter his or her legal name provided to the Elections Board for placement on a ballot.

321.600 No candidate shall participate in, condone or authorize the defacement, destruction or theft of another candidate’s campaign material.

321.700 No candidate shall publish either by verbal, written, printed or electronic material anything which is known to be false and/or directly or by inference threatens to accuse another of any crime or offense, or which is designed to injure the person, property, or reputation of another, or threatens to expose another to disgrace, or threatens to deny or terminate the membership of another in any campus organization without proper evidence of accusatory remarks.

321.800 A candidate is reasonably responsible for the actions of other individuals and organizations supporting him or her, and may be subject to review by the Elections Board for these actions.

321.900 Aggressive, hostile, violent or disruptive confrontation between candidates, tickets and parties will not be tolerated.

322.000 Constitutional Referenda

322.100 Constitutional referenda shall occur in accordance to Article IX of the Student Government Constitution.

323.000 General Referenda

323.100 General referenda are questions placed on the ballots during General Elections for the Student Body to vote on as legislated by the Student Senate, relevant Campus House, or student petition.
323.200 General referenda items pertaining to university-wide matters shall require a 3/4 vote of the Student Senate in order to be placed on the next regularly occurring spring election ballot.

323.210 Such referenda items must be voted on and approved by the Student Senate at least thirty-days (30) prior to the election referenced above in order to appear on the ballot.

323.220 Such referenda items may also appear on the ballot if three (3) percent of the University wide student body signs a petition in support of the referenda item.

323.300 General referenda items pertaining to a campus-based matter shall require a 3/4 vote of the House of Representatives on the campus in question in order to be placed on the next regularly occurring Spring election ballot.

323.310 Such referenda items must be voted on and approved by the Student Senate at least thirty-days (30) prior to the election referenced above in order to appear on the ballot.

323.320 Such referenda items may also appear on the ballot if three (3) percent of the campus wide student body signs a petition in support of the referenda.

324.000 Election Contingency Plan

324.100 In case of a campus emergency such as a natural disaster, threats of natural disaster, acts of God, or other such threats to the safety and security of FAU students which may impede the voting process, the Student Body President may, upon agreement with the Chair of Elections and the SG Advisor, suspend and reschedule an election and revise the election timeline.

324.200 In the case of catastrophic technical or elections process failure, the Student Body President, may upon agreement with the Chair of Elections and the SG Advisor, call a new election and any voter results of the disrupted election will be invalidated.

325.000 Supplement to the Elections Statutes

325.100 The Elections Board and/or Student Court may adopt or look to any part of the election laws of the State of Florida, or to the common law, not in conflict with the Student Body Constitution, Student Body Statutes or FAU University Regulations to ensure fair and impartial elections and in interpreting these Chapter 300 Elections Statutes.
