How to Apply: First-Time in College

Step 1: Submit an online application and fee: Complete the application (Common App or FAU) for admission and pay the non-refundable $30 application fee online. Visit fau.edu/admissions/international/how-to-apply/

International Student Deadlines

Summer Semester (Starting in May)..... April 1
Fall Semester (starting in August) April 1
Spring Semester (Starting in January) September 1

Step 2: First time incoming international students should have their high school records, including courses/subjects and grades completed during the course of their entire high school career and exam results like CXC/GCSES, etc., evaluated by an NACES evaluation agency. FAU will only accept an evaluation conducted by a NACES accredited agency. A list of evaluation service members may be found at NACES accredited evaluation website - fau.edu/admissions/eval-agencies/.

Step 3: SAT or ACT test scores are required for all first year applicants. Find SAT test information at collegeboard.com (FAU school code: 5229). Find ACT Test information at actstudent.org (FAU school code: 0729).

Step 4: Students who meet the Florida Board of Governors requirements for college readiness through SAT or ACT sub-section scores in Verbal/Reading and English sections or meet one of four requirements may be academically qualified for admission to FAU and exempt from English Proficiency Exams.

If a student does not meet the SAT/ACT sub-section minimums or one of four requirements, they are required to submit an English Proficiency Exam, to demonstrate their proficiency in the English language, or complete the Intensive English Institute Academic Track, an intensive English program, which prepares students to transition into university-level academic programs.
