

FAU School of Architecture Fall 2014 Lecture Series

October 9, 4:30pm

Max Strang “On Rise”

Max Strang (born November 18, 1970) is an architect based in Coconut Grove (Miami), Florida and Telluride, Colorado. Prior to starting his own firm in 2001, Strang worked for Leedy and SHoP Architects. His professional training also included a brief internship with Pritzker winning Zaha Hadid in 1999. Strang received an undergraduate degree in architecture from the University of Florida and a graduate degree from Columbia University. He has received numerous local and state awards and the work of his firm, Max Strang Architecture, has been extensively published.

MetroLAB

Askew Tower ■ Downtown Campus
222 SE. 2nd Ave/ Las Olas Blvd.
Fort Lauderdale, 33301

FAU
FLORIDA
ATLANTIC
UNIVERSITY