

The FAU Comparative Studies Student Association Presents

“Post-Vital: Remaking Life and Death in Biomedicine”

Held in Conjunction with the 2014 CSSA Conference,
Focusing on the Post(-):
An Interdisciplinary Perspective

Keynote Speaker:
Sherryl Vint,
University of California,
Riverside

In her lecture, Sherryl Vint will discuss how synthetic biology and organ transplantation are shaping and changing what it means to be human and/or alive.

1:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 24, 2014
Live Oak Pavillion

The Comparative Studies Student Association provides an organizational forum that fosters camaraderie and research collaboration among students in the Comparative Studies Ph.D. Program.

For more information, or if accommodations for a disability are needed, please contact Michael Horswell (horswell@fau.edu) a minimum of five (5) working days in advance of the event.

Sherryl Vint has published widely on science fiction, including most recently Science Fiction: A Guide to the Perplexed. She is a Professor of Science Fiction Media Studies and Co-Director of the Science Fiction and Technoculture Studies Program at the University of California, Riverside, and an editor for the journals Science Fiction Film and Television and Science Fiction Studies. Her current research is on biopolitics and science fiction.

FAU
PHD IN COMPARATIVE
STUDIES
Dorothy F. Schmidt
College of Arts and Letters
Florida Atlantic University