

Theodore Pratt, Florida Atlantic University, and Midcentury Florida

Book Talk & Signing by Dr. Taylor Hagood

Wednesday, February 19

4:00 pm - 5:30 pm

S.E. Wimberly Library, 5th Floor, Weiner Suite

The event is free to the public, registration is preferred.

For information on parking, email faupark@fau.edu.

Please email 5 days in advance of event for disability accommodations. libevents@fau.edu

Questions? Email libevents@fau.edu

@faulibraries

library.fau.edu

Light refreshments will be served

Join Dr. Taylor Hagood for a captivating book talk on Theodore Pratt, Florida Atlantic University, and Midcentury Florida:

Discover the compelling stories that shaped midcentury Florida and learn how they continue to inspire and influence us today. Don't miss this opportunity to delve into history, literature, and the enduring spirit of Florida's golden age!

Dr. Taylor Hagood is Professor of American Literature in FAU's English Department. His scholarship has focused largely on the writing of William Faulkner, African American literature, and the literature of the United States South. His scholarly books include Faulkner's Imperialism, Following Faulkner, and Faulkner, Writer of Disability, which won the C. Hugh Holman Award for Best Book in Southern Studies. He has also published the biography/true crime, Stringbean: The Life and Murder of a Country Music Legend.

FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY
Libraries

FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY
Department of English
Dorothy F. Schmidt
College of Arts and Letters

This event is made possible by the collaboration of University Libraries and College of Arts and Letters.