

Family Art Day

Ritter Art Gallery &
Schmidt Center Gallery

SATURDAY
MARCH 16
1-4pm

What's Happening?

The University Galleries invite you and your family to our upcoming "Family Art Day" on Saturday, March 16, from 1 to 4 p.m. Designed for children ages 5 to 12 and their adult family members, the event is free for families to attend.

At Family Art Day, children and their families will have the opportunity to discover and engage with works by El Salvadoran artists featured in "Black Mirror And other Third World Reflections." This exhibition features painting, photography, film/video, mixed media works, and installations.

These contemporary works offer unique perspectives on everyday life in El Salvador as well as the impact of migration, these artists use humor, irony, satire, and play as tactics to address complex subjects such as the after effects of the Salvadoran Civil War.

Activities planned for Family Art Day include hands on art making stations, scavenger hunts, and interactive guided tours led by FAU art students employing a technique that engages children in discovering works of art through their eyes, experiences, and opinions.

Adults will be allowed to step back and let FAU art students immerse the kids in the art or will be welcomed to join them in the fun and learning. While the Family Art Day program will occur in both of our galleries, attendees may begin at either the Schmidt Center Gallery or the Ritter Gallery.
