

Peace Studies Program

Florida Atlantic University, Boca Raton

EXPRESSIONS of PEACE

PRESENTS

Sand Mandala: The Sacred Art of Tibet

Opening Ceremony:

Saturday, Feb. 25, 12 pm

Closing Ceremony: Saturday, March 3, 1 pm

Schmidt Center Gallery

Painting with colored sands is one of the most exquisite and unique expressions of Tantric Buddhism. Over the course of a week, visiting Tibetan monks will create an intricate work made from millions of grains of colored sands.

The Schmidt Center Gallery will be open for viewing the mandala
Feb. 25 – March 3, 10 am – 6 pm.

For more information,
call 561-297-2966 or visit www.fau.edu/galleries.

All public programs listed are free and open to the public.

Lecture: What is a Mandala? What Is Peace?

Monday, Feb. 27, 4 pm

Student Union (SU), House Chamber

Lecture by Dr. Nathan Katz,
Program of Spirituality, FIU.

Film: Sand Painting The Sacred Art of Tibet

Wednesday, Feb. 29, 4 pm

University Theatre

Lecture and film sponsored by the FAU Peace Studies Program and Department of Anthropology. In this beautifully photographed and fascinating documentary, Tibetan monks from the Dalai Lama's personal monastery create the most sacred of all Buddhist sand paintings.

The Peace Studies Program is committed to the extensive investigation and understanding of the causes of peace from a multidisciplinary perspective. The program invites the active participation of students at all academic levels as well as the broader community.