

Surfing Florida

A photographic history

Last Chance
to see itEvent

May 12
2-8 pm

2pm New School Surf Photography Slide Show:
Nicola Lugo works in the water with today's hot talent. Latest Surfer magazine features his photos.

3pm Screening: *Surfing at Summer's End with Will Lucas, in person to discuss his most recent video, a historic documentary that combines vintage 8 mm film, still photography and contemporary interviews.

4pm Old School Surf Photography Slide Show:
John Tate Broward bred and shooting since the 1970s

5pm *Surf Rock and the Music of the "Right" Coast
A lecture by James Cunningham, Ethnomusicologist and FAU Associate Professor of Music will discuss the birth, rise, death and rebirths of surf music as well as Florida's unique connections and contributions.

6-8pm Live DJ: Kulcha Shok
Reggae and Surf Music with Lance O

Food and Drink

Cash bar beginning at 4 pm. Food will be available anytime from the Living Room Theatres Cafe, right next to the Schmidt Gallery/Performing Arts building.

Free Raffles, All Day Long

At each event during the day, you will have a chance to win an official Surfing Florida T-shirt.

If accommodation(s) for a disability is required contact Rod Faulds at 561-297-2661, a minimum of five (5) working days in advance of the date of the event.

University Galleries
Dorothy F. Schmidt
College of Arts and Letters
Florida Atlantic University
Boca Raton
www.fau.edu/galleries 561.297.2661

KONICA MINOLTA

Florida
Humanities
Council

Jimbo Sampson, Palm Beach, late 1970s
Photo by John Tate

This project is made possible in part by grants from the Florida Humanities Council and the National Endowment for the Humanities; the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County; the Roslin Family Foundation. Printing courtesy Konica Minolta Business Services. Media Sponsor: ESM - Eastern Surf Magazine.