
Internships

The History M.A. program offers students an opportunity to gain valuable, hands-on experience working as public history interns at local museums, historical societies, and preservation agencies. Students may earn more internship credits, but only 3 hours may be applied to the total number required for the degree. For more information, contact Dr. Sandra Norman, Director, History Internship Program, at norman@fau.edu

For detailed description, please go to:

http://www.fau.edu/history/pdf/Internship_in_public_history_pamphlet_new-PDF.pdf
