

SYMPOSIUM PANELS

AMERICAN REVOLUTIONS: THE REVERBERATIONS OF REBELLION ACROSS THE AMERICAS AND THE CARIBBEAN

Florida Atlantic Student and Faculty Researchers
S.E. Wimberly Library, 5th Floor, Florida Atlantic

SESSION 1: 2 PM, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 28

SESSION 2: 12:45 PM, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29

SESSION 3: 2:30 PM, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29

FEATURED SESSION: 4:15 PM, THURS., OCT. 29

Florida Atlantic students and faculty present research that results from their year of sustained attention to the 250th anniversary of the U.S. founding. Using the College's signature "Study of the Americas" framework, presenters from multiple disciplines will bring a hemisphere-wide perspective that capitalizes on South Florida's centrality to the Americas as they examine major themes of America 250.

FREE and open to the public.

Registration required at fau.edu/revolutions

SESSION 1: 2 PM, WED., OCTOBER 28

- Religion, Race, and White Womanhood: Alma Bridwell White and the 1920s KKK
Ellis Hall, Ph.D. student
- Buffalo Tiger: The Strong Leadership that Led to the Recognition of the Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida
Liam Burke, B.A. student
- The Beautiful Rebellion: Feminist Soccer Fan Collectives and the Politics of Resistance in Brazil, Argentina, and Colombia
Luisa Turbino Torres, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Political Science; The Center for Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

SESSION 2: 12:45 PM, THURS., OCTOBER 29

- "See your Declaration Americans!!!": Demonstrating African Americans' Revolutionary Definitions of Liberty in the Late 18th and Early 19th Century
Antonietta Ruschak, B.A. student
- A Fading Identity: The Erasure of the Biracial Population in Post-Reconstruction North Carolina
Jordan Gaddy, M.A. student
- Triangulating American Revolutions in Islas que ya no son by Carmen Duarte
Mary Ann Gosser Esquilín, Ph.D., Professor of Languages, Linguistics, and Comparative Literature

SESSION 3: 2:30 PM, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29

- In the Shadow of the City on a Hill: The Glorious Revolution in New England
Shannon M. Patron, M.A. student
- "Equality or Nothing!" William Tennent's Speech and the Success of Early Religious Disestablishment in South Carolina, 1777
Nathan J. Shull, M.A. '26
- The John Perkins Affair: Arms Smuggling, Covert Mutiny, and British Imperial Subversion in St. Domingue
Christopher Chadarevian, Ph.D. student