

FAU COMMEMORATES CONSTITUTION DAY

2012 | FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY, BOCA RATON

Mon | September 17 | Noon – 2 pm

Lobby & House Chambers, Student Union (SU)

Noon – Opening Ceremony

12:45 pm – Student Essay Readings and Awards

Wed | September 19 | Noon – 2 pm

House Chambers, Student Union (SU)

FAU Faculty Presentations – A diverse group of FAU professors will make brief presentations on the Constitution.

Women's Rights and the Constitution

Dr. Mirya Holman

The U.S. Constitution & International Law

Dr. Jeffrey Morton

Healthcare and the U.S. Constitution

Dr. Timothy Lenz

Constitutional Rights vs. the Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen: A Comparison and Contrast

Dr. Marina Banchetti

Thurs | September 20 | 5 – 7 pm

Grand Palm (RM 103), Student Union (SU)

First Amendment Privacy as an Instrument of Social Change – Informal workshop for undergraduate and graduate students presented by Dr. Anita L. Allen the Henry R. Silverman

Professor of Law and Professor of Philosophy at the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Fri | September 21 | 1-3 pm

Live Oak Pavilion (A, B, & C), Student Union (SU)

The Word Is Not There – How Privacy Became A Constitutional Right

University-wide lecture, as a part of Jack Miller Forum Commemoration of Constitution Day, 2012, presented by Dr. Anita L. Allen.

Information at 561-297-2928 or headley@fau.edu.