Schmidt Center Gallery Public Space | FAU Boca Raton

The exhibition includes 51 photographs taken by Alberto Martí, documenting the mass migration of people from Galicia (Northwest of Spain) to the Americas between 1957 and 1963. The Galicians were saying 'farewell' to their homeland to escape the poverty in Spain that resulted from the Spanish Civil War (1936-39). The exhibition was inaugurated at New York's Ellis Island in February 2019.
