

Thomas W. McCormick Scholarship

for Study Abroad in Italy

Call for Applications

The Thomas W. McCormick Scholarship Fund, a Florida non-profit corporation, was incorporated on December 30, 2004 with Nuccia McCormick as the founder and President. The company is named after Nuccia's late husband who, as Nuccia, was an enthusiastic supporter of education, cultural diversity and international diplomacy.

A scholarship recipient will be provided with a financial contribution ($1,000) towards the participation in the FAU study abroad program, which includes several learning opportunities (language and culture classes, day trips).

When the student returns from abroad, he/she will be asked to provide the board members with highlights of the trip and a report of what was learned, both culturally and educationally, from the experience.

The student should be ready to accomplish the mission of youth ambassador from Broward County to Italy, in order to strengthen the relationship between these two countries and provide a positive image of the home country abroad.

- resident of Broward County
- academically deserving student
- participant in the summer FAU Study Abroad Program in Venice
