TEACH ENGLISH IN ITALY (PIEDMONT)

A new partnership between Florida Atlantic University and the Rete delle Scuole Autonome del Piemonte is offering a work experience as an intern in Italy to teach English in local high schools. The period varies from one semester (September-December or January-June) to one academic year (September-June). Work visa, subsidized lodging (and meals in some cases) and tutoring provided. Plus, interns will have the opportunity to study in Italy – courses of Italian or in Italian – at the Università del Piemonte Orientale. If coordinated with OIP students can get study abroad credit at FAU. Open for current students and recent graduates with at least a bachelor's degree from FAU.
