

2019 OUTSTANDING HOLOCAUST EDUCATOR AWARDS
SPONSORED BY THE GUTTERMAN FAMILY FUND
OF THE FAU CENTER FOR HOLOCAUST AND HUMAN RIGHTS EDUCATION

Purpose

The award recognizes educators who have demonstrated a positive impact on their schools and community in the field of Holocaust, genocide, and human rights education. Established by Arthur Gutterman for the Florida Atlantic University Center for Holocaust and Human Rights Education - CHHRE, the award honors individuals who actively, through teaching about these difficult subjects and their personal example, strengthen south Florida students' world-citizenship and capacity to uphold the dignity of all persons.

Award

The award enables recipients to participate in a Holocaust travel-study program. The award covers airfare, lodging, and program tuition. Other costs are the responsibility of the participant.

Eligibility

Awards will be presented to teachers who have taught about the Holocaust, other genocide/s, and human rights for at least three years in Broward, Palm Beach, Indian River, Martin, Glades, Okeechobee, or St. Lucie counties in Florida.

Scoring Rubric

Please review the Scoring Rubric at the end of this document. It contains a detailed list of the materials needed to submit an application. Follow the directions carefully. Each submission will be reviewed and scored according to this rubric.
