Dear South Florida Arts and Culture Enthusiasts,

The Dorothy F. Schmidt College of Arts and Letters is the best answer to the perennial question “What do you want to do tonight?” And this year we are giving you more ways to answer that question than ever before with an expanded 2015-16 season of events. We are proud of the rich, varied and diverse programs we offer – programs that, on campus or off, bring people from all walks of life together to celebrate the extraordinary talents of our students, faculty and visiting speakers and artists. It’s no wonder President John Kelly decided to highlight the arts and humanities in his new “Race to Excellence” Strategic Plan. We look forward to contributing to that excellence and welcoming you as we pursue our goals with the unbridled ambition that is the hallmark of FAU’s trajectory forward. What do you want to do tonight? Let us give you some choices! Hope to see you soon.

NEW ART: SOUTH FLORIDA CULTURAL CONSORTIUM VISUAL AND MEDIA ARTISTS FELLOWSHIP EXHIBITION

RITTER ART GALLERY: September 11 – November 7, 2015

SCHMIDT CENTER GALLERY: September 18 - October 31, 2015

Opening: Saturday, September 19, 6:30 pm

Artists & Public Programs to be Announced

Each year a consortium of Florida's five county cultural councils awards 10 to 12 grants to visual and media artists residing in the five counties. In an era of shrinking support for individual artists these $7,500 and $15,000 grants are among America's highest annual awards provided through a public competitive grant process. The exhibition presents recent works by these artists and also allows some of them to make new works on-site often with the assistance of FAU students. The 2015 edition of the exhibition marks the fifth time since 2001 that the exhibition has been presented by University Galleries. The works in the exhibition were selected by Mariela Acuna and Rod Faulds. An illustrated catalogue published by the University Galleries will document the exhibition.
