WELCOME

The Department of Theatre and Dance welcomes you to our 2008/2009 production season. These productions play an integral role in the process of theatre education at Florida Atlantic University by providing essential capstone projects for our students and by creating living examples of this living art form for the greater university community. We are pleased that you have chosen to join us and to collaborate as an audience in our celebration of the theatre art and we hope that you enjoy the results of our classroom education and training programs. We also invite you back for all of our School of the Arts productions and exhibitions during this academic year and to our 2009 Summer Festival Repertory Theatre.

Richard Gamble, Chair
Department of Theatre and Dance

The Kennedy Center

THE JOHN F. KENNEDY CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

The Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival™ 41

sponsored in part by

Stephen and Christine Schwarzman
The Kennedy Center Corporate Fund
U.S. Department of Education
The National Committee for the Performing Arts
Dr. Gerald and Paula McNichols Foundation

This production is entered in the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival (KCACTF). The aims of this national theater education program are to identify and promote quality in college-level theater production. To this end, each production entered is eligible for a response by a regional KCACTF representative, and selected students and faculty are invited to participate in KCACTF programs involving scholarships, internships, grants and awards for actors, directors, dramaturgs, playwrights, designers, stage managers and critics at both the regional and national levels.

Productions entered on the Participating level are eligible for inclusion at the KCACTF regional festival and can also be considered for invitation to the KCACTF national festival at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, DC in the spring of 2009.

Last year more than 1,300 productions were entered in the KCACTF involving more than 200,000 students nationwide. By entering this production, our theater department is sharing in the KCACTF goals to recognize, reward, and celebrate the exemplary work produced in college and university theaters across the nation.
