

FAU DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE AND DANCE PRESENTS

THE DIVINERS

BY JIM LEONARD JR.

NOVEMBER 12-14, 19-21, 2010
STUDIO ONE THEATRE | FAU BOCA RATON

FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY.
SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

GREAT PLACE. GREAT ENERGY. GREAT WORK.

As we begin our 45th season, I would like to invite you, our loyal patrons, to join us in celebrating the talent, creativity and hard work of our students, faculty and staff. We are proud to be an educational theatre dedicated to producing quality productions while nurturing actors, dancers, designers, technicians, playwrights and managers. Theatre plays a vital role in the liberal arts experience at FAU. Just as the liberal arts environment provides students with an appreciation, understanding and insight for a variety of subjects, the Department of Theatre and Dance strives to create an environment conducive to the individual growth of the student within the context of the one of the most collaborative and complex of arts disciplines. Over the years our patrons have demonstrated their support for educational theatre and have always made us an integral part of the community. We feel the same way; we are your FAU theatre. This year, through the medium of public performance, we bring you a theatre season comprised of four plays, two dance concerts, a program of original play readings and several student-created projects. We invite you to join us in the celebration.

Gvozden Kopani, Chair
Department of Theatre and Dance

THEATRE POLICIES: As a courtesy to the performers and other patrons please turn off your cellular phone, pager, beeper, wristwatch alarm and any other gadgetry before entering the theatre. Photography, audio or video recording and message texting are not permitted in the theatre. Please refrain from opening wrapped candy or other distracting activities during the performance.*

Late seating is not guaranteed and latecomers may not be admitted to the theatre. When appropriate, latecomers will be seated in the rear of the theatre and may take their regular seats at intermission.

Enjoy the show!

THE JOHN F. KENNEDY CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

THE KENNEDY CENTER AMERICAN COLLEGE THEATER FESTIVAL™ XLIII

sponsored in part by

Stephen and Christine Schwarzman
The Kennedy Center Corporate Fund
U.S. Department of Education
The National Committee for the Performing Arts
Dr. Gerald and Paula McNichols Foundation

This production is entered in the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival (KCACTF). The aims of this national theater education program are to identify and promote quality in college-level theater production. To this end, each production entered is eligible for a response by a regional KCACTF representative, and selected students and faculty are invited to participate in KCACTF programs involving scholarships, internships, grants and awards for actors, directors, dramaturgs, playwrights, designers, stage managers and critics at both the regional and national levels.

Productions entered on the Participating level are eligible for inclusion at the KCACTF regional festival and can also be considered for invitation to the KCACTF national festival at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, DC in the spring of 2011.

Last year more than 1,300 productions were entered in the KCACTF involving more than 200,000 students nationwide. By entering this production, our theater department is sharing in the KCACTF goals to recognize, reward, and celebrate the exemplary work produced in college and university theaters across the nation.
