MAIN STAGE

Southeastern Premiere
November 30 - December 16

It is July 1977. Son of Sam is on the loose and New York City is in the midst of a brutal heat wave. Sixteen year-old Mary Claire and her best friend Mary Francis start that day sunning themselves on the roof of an Ozone Park row house.

Younger sister Reenie is searching for her lost Greek Mythology class project, while their parents are consumed by the battles of their troubled marriage. The boy crazy Marys hatch a plan to stay out all night, but an over-stressed electrical grid leads to a city-wide blackout and a sudden loss of innocence.

Southeastern Premiere
February 8 - 24

We Will Not Be Silent tells the true story of Sophie Scholl, a German college student who led the only major act of civil disobedience to the Nazis during the Second World War.

The play examines the role that ordinary Germans played in the rise of Hitler -- and the moral strength and courage that led a group of German students to risk their lives for a righteous, but hopeless, cause.

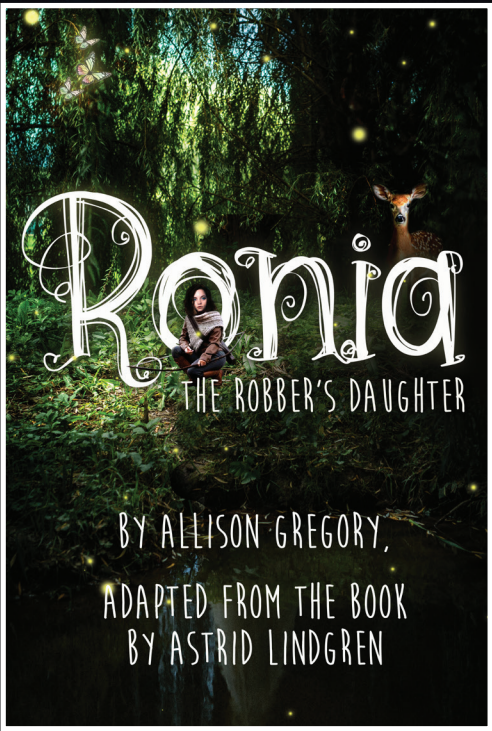

World Premiere
March 29 - April 14

After suffering a potent physical trauma, Harlowe loses her sense of touch.

When her sister brings her home to convalesce, she retreats to the bathroom and spends hour after hour languishing in the tub. Harlowe is a story of sisters and bodies; it is a story of how we heal.

In a mythic countryside in a mountain fort surrounded by wild forest and woodland creatures, young Ronia is raised and loved by her family, who happen to be a band of robbers. Everything changes when she encounters the impetuous son of a rival band of robbers. Their friendship forces Ronia to question her fiery father's actions—and to take a stand for her own beliefs.

This production will be the center-piece of Theatre Lab's Heckscher Theatre for Families series, providing free writing workshops and live-theatrical experiences to more than 1400 students each year.
