

Thursday & Friday, January 29-30, 2015

Visiting Artist Workshop and Lecture by

Artist, Editor and Publisher:

Elaine Olafson Henry

Thursday Jan. 29

Critiques 9am-12pm
T-10 Room 28 (Sign-up necessary, space limited)

Artist Lecture 1pm-2pm
"Current Directions in International Ceramics"
"Professionalism in Ceramic Studio Practice"

General Classroom South (GS), Room 119
Workshop 2:30pm-5:30pm
Visual Arts Building (VA), Room 112

Friday Jan. 30

Workshop 9am-12pm
Visual Arts Building (VA), Room 112

Elaine Olafson Henry is the Editor and Publisher of the international ceramics journals Ceramics: Art & Perception and Ceramics TECHNICAL. She earned a BFA from the University of Wyoming and an MFA from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. She taught at Emporia State University from 1996-2007 where she served as the Chair of the Department of Art from 2000 - 2007. Henry served as the President of the National Council on Education for the Ceramic Arts (NCECA) from 2002 to 2004. She is currently a Fellow of that group. Her work is internationally published, exhibited and collected. She is an elected member of the International Academy of Ceramics.