

The Department of Visual Arts & Art History
presents designer

Mylinh Trieu Nguyen

Mylinh Trieu Nguyen

Mylinh Trieu Nguyen is a graphic designer based in Miami, FL. Her work explores ideas of distribution, collaboration and curation through new and appropriated systems and frameworks. She has a MFA in Graphic Design from Yale University, School of Art and a BFA in Design | Media Arts from the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA). In 2008, she was selected to participate in the Walker Art Center's prestigious Design Fellowship in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Her work has been featured at P.S.1 MoMA (Queens, New York), Art Basel (Basel, CH), CCA Wattis Institute (San Francisco, CA), Art in General, the Swiss Institute, and the New Museum among others. Currently she is the art director at the Wolfsonian-FIU.

Florida Atlantic University
Fort Lauderdale campus AT724
Thursday, Nov 1, 2012 7pm