STRATEGIC PLANNING COMMITTEE

Wednesday, November 8, 2006

SUBJECT: REVISIONS TO THE FAU TRUSTEES' POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

PROPOSED BOARD ACTION

The Strategic Planning Committee requests the Board of Trustees accept these necessary revisions to the FAU Board of Trustees Policies and Procedures.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The existing policies and procedures for the board were last completed in 2004 and is need of some housekeeping changes, references to the strategic plan, the new branding logos, the chair's responsibilities, and current committee structure and responsibilities.

1. Throughout the document, there are several small editing corrections.
2. Section 1.2 identifies the policies and procedures currently reference the purpose and principles of the FAU Board of Trustees. This document was accepted before the Strategic Plan was complete. When discussing the purpose of the document and the trustees' commitment to academic freedom, it seemed prudent to include the vision, mission and values identified in the strategic plan.
3. Section 2.4 incorporates the new logo for the board of trustees and the new corporate seal.
4. Section 4.4 references the duties of the BOT Chair. The responsibilities should include conducting the President's annual evaluation. The following phrase was added to the wording as a result of the discussion during the Strategic Planning Committee: "The Board of Trustee Chair is responsible for causing the Board to conduct an annual evaluation of the University President.
5. Section 5.2 defines and describes the standing committee of the Board of Trustees. The prior committees included: academic and student affairs, affiliated organizations, audit and finance, personnel and compensation, and planning and development. In early 2005, the board chair implemented a more streamlined committee structure. The written policies and procedures should reflect the current practices of the board. The current committee structure is comprised of the following three committees: audit and finance, strategic planning, and academic and student affairs. The policies and procedures allow for ad-hoc committees to be established as needed. Two examples of current ad-hoc committees include collective bargaining and diversity.

Part II of the Policies and Procedures remains unchanged. As the Board of Governors and the State of Florida further clarify the devolution of power and authority, the FAU Trustees' policies and procedures will then be revised and clarified in the summary of duties and powers included in Part II.

Part III of the Policies and Procedures remains unchanged.

IMPLEMENTATION PLAN/DATE

The changes will be official once the board accepts the recommendation. Once these changes are adopted, the complete policies and procedures will become part of the Board Handbook and posted on the BOT website.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

There are no fiscal implications to this proposed board action.

As appointed public officers, Trustees stand in a fiduciary relationship to the University and the people of the State of Florida. Therefore, Trustees shall act in good faith, with due regard to the interests of the University and shall comply with the ethical principles adopted in these policies, as well as those required by law and set forth in the Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees, Section 112.311-112.326 of the Florida Statutes¹. A trustee desiring a waiver shall submit a written request to the Corporate Secretary at least two (2) weeks prior to the BOT meeting at which the request would be considered. The written request shall outline the nature of the proposed activity that would create a conflict and an explanation of how such conflict would be managed.
