

Breezeway Dialogues

Diverse viewpoints through civil discourse

Wednesday, November 3, Noon to 1 p.m.

Boca Raton Campus, Social Science Rotunda (SO-44)

The Crisis of Race & Policing: Wrong, Right and Everything in Between

Deadly encounters between police and people of color are of increasing concern. News and social media coverage of incidents depicting police use of force have deeply impacted communities across the country and have sparked increasing social and political conflict and debate. EXPLORE the merits of multiple perspectives, and DISCOVER a roadmap for respectful, civil discourse on policing and race.

VAUGHN CRICHLLOW, Ph.D.
Associate Professor
School of Social Work
and Criminal Justice

Associate Dean
Academic and Student Services
College of Social Work
and Criminal Justice

SETH FALLIK, Ph.D.
Associate Professor
School of Social Work
and Criminal Justice

CHAMELI SINGH
FAU Student
Bachelor of Social Work
Phyllis & Harvey Sandler
School of Social Work

FREE T-SHIRTS
FOR FIRST 50
TO CHECK IN!